A matter regarding CASCADIA APARTMENT RENTALS LTD.
and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on January 20, 2015, the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. Also submitted in evidence was a copy of the registered mail receipt and tracking number.

Section 90 of the Act determines that documents served in this manner are deemed to have been served five days later, whether or not the tenant refuses or neglects to accept the documents.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenant has been duly served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents as of January 25, 2015.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are whether the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent and to a Monetary Order for unpaid rent, pursuant to sections 46, 55 and 67 of the Act.

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the tenant including the registered mail customer receipt and tracking number;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet Direct Request dated January 19, 2015 indicating the Landlord claims $1,540.00 in rent owed;
- A copy of a Residential Tenancy Agreement which was signed by the parties on October 22, 2014, indicating a monthly rent of $945.00 due on the first day of the month;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent which was issued on January 8, 2015 with a stated effective vacancy date of January 18, 2015, for $1,540.00 in unpaid rent (the “10 Day Notice”); and
- A copy of the Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy confirming the 10 Day Notice was served on the Tenant on January 8, 2015 by posting to the rental unit door.

Section 90 of the Act deems the tenant was served the 10 Day Notice three days after posting to the door, namely January 11, 2015, and as such, pursuant to section 53, the effective vacancy date is automatically corrected to January 21, 2015.

The Notice states that the tenant had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end. The tenant did not apply to dispute the 10 Day Notice within five days from the date of service.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with the notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay all the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the Notice. Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of possession and a monetary Order in the amount of $1,540.00 for unpaid rent.

Conclusion

I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective two (2) days after service on the tenant and the Order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I find that the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation pursuant section 67 in the amount of $1,540.00 comprised of rent owed. This Order must be served on the tenant and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is final and binding on the parties, unless otherwise provided under the Act, and is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
