DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on February 02, 2015, the landlord’s agent sent the tenant the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. This date is wrong as the Application for Dispute Resolution was made on February 11, 2015 so the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding could only have been sent after this date. The landlord’s agent provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing and this receipt shows that the landlord actually sent the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding on February 12, 2015. In accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on February 17, 2015, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenants;

- A copy of a Rental Incentive Agreement indicating a rental concession of $65.00 for the duration of the lease dependent on the fulfillment of the term of the lease.
- A copy of a Resident Ledger Summary Report showing the rent owing and paid during this tenancy;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenant on December 12, 2014, indicating a monthly rent of $775.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on January 01, 2015;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during this tenancy; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated February 02, 2015, posted to the tenant's door on February 02, 2015, with a stated effective vacancy date of February 12, 2015, for $710.00 in unpaid rent.

Witnessed documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the 10 Day Notice was posted to the tenant's door at 10:00 a.m. on February 02, 2015. The Notice states that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant was deemed served with the 10 Day Notice on February 05, 2015, three days after its posting.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $710.00 as per the tenancy agreement and the rental incentive agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that 5 day period

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, February 15, 2015.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order in the amount of $710.00, the amount claimed by the landlord, for unpaid rent owing for February 2015 as of February 11, 2015.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $710.00 for rent owed for February 2015. The landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
