DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on March 4, 2015, the landlord “AD” served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by way of posting it to the door of the rental unit at 7:00 pm on March 4, 2015. The Proof of Service form establishes that the service was witnessed by “GO” and a signature for “GO” is included on the form.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on March 7, 2015, three days after their posting.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord’s agent “AD” on November 6, 2014 and signed by the tenant on November 5, 2014, indicating a monthly rent of $600.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on November 1, 2014;

- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlord establishes that there is outstanding rent owing in the amount of $600.00 for February 2015;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated February 19, 2015, which the landlord states was served to the tenant on February 19, 2015, for $600.00 in unpaid rent due on February 1, 2015, with a stated effective vacancy date of March 1, 2015; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice showing that the landlord "AD" served the Notice to the tenant by way of personal service via hand-delivery at 9:00 am on February 19, 2015. The personal service was confirmed as the tenant acknowledged receipt of the Notice by signing the Proof of Service form.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and find that in accordance with section 88 of the Act the tenant was duly served with the Notice on February 19, 2015.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $600.00, as established in the tenancy agreement. I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay $600.00 in rent for the month of February 2015. I find that the tenant received the Notice on February 19, 2015. I accept the landlord's undisputed evidence and find that the tenant did not pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that 5-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice, March 1, 2015.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession based on the Notice served to the tenant for unpaid rent owing for February 2015.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord(s) effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
