DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on April 22, 2015, the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been received 5 days after service.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on April 27, 2015, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

 A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenant; Page: 2

• A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord's agent and the tenant on March 9, 2012, indicating a monthly rent of $1,698.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on March 15, 2012. The tenancy agreement includes an addendum which indicates that the landlord has entered into an agreement with a provincial housing commission with respect to subsidized housing, and therefore, establishes that the rent is related to the tenant's income. The provincial housing commission calculates the tenant's portion of the rent contribution based on an application for rent subsidy.

- A letter from the landlord, dated October 24, 2014, which demonstrates that the most recent calculation of the tenant's rent contribution established that effective
  November 1, 2014, the tenant's rent contribution was set at $529.00;
- A letter from the landlord, dated April 22, 2015, which establishes that for February 2015 and March 2015 only, the tenant's rent was reduced to $213.00 per month;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlord establishes a monetary claim in the amount of $955.00 for outstanding rent. The landlord indicates that there is rent owing in the amount of $213.00 for each of February 2015 and March 2015, and unpaid rent owed in the amount of $529.00 for April 2015;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated April 7, 2015, which the landlord states was served to the tenant on April 7, 2015, for $955.00 in unpaid rent due on April 1, 2015, with a stated effective vacancy date of April 17, 2015; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice showing that the landlord's agent "KP" served the Notice to the tenant by way of posting it to the door of the rental unit at 3:30 pm on April 7, 2015. The Proof of Service form establishes that the service was witnessed by "CP" and a signature for CP is included on the form.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence provided by the landlord. Section 90 of the Act provides that because the Notice was served by posting the Notice to the door of the rental unit, the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice three days after its posting. In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice on April 10, 2015, three days after its posting.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $213.00 for the months of February 2015 and March 2015 and $529.00 for April 2015. I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay outstanding rental arrears in the amount of $955.00, comprised of the balance of rent owed for the months of February 2015, March 2015, and April 2015. I find that the tenant received the Notice on April 10, 2015. I accept the landlord's undisputed evidence and find that the tenant did not pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that 5-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the Notice, April 20, 2015.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order of $955.00 for unpaid rent owing for February 2015, March 2015, and April 2015, as of April 22, 2015.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of thisOrder on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of 955.00 for unpaid rent owing as of April 22, 2015. The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
