DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, MDSD, FF

Introduction

A hearing was conducted by conference call in the presence of both parties. On the basis of the solemnly affirmed evidence presented at that hearing, a decision has been reached. All of the evidence was carefully considered.

Both parties were given a full opportunity to present evidence and make submissions. Neither party requested an adjournment or a Summons to Testify. Prior to concluding the hearing both parties acknowledged they had presented all of the relevant evidence that they wished to present.

I find that the Notice to End Tenancy was sufficiently served on the Tenant by placing in her mail slot on February 19, 2015. Further I find that the Application for Dispute Resolution/Notice of Hearing was personally served on the Tenant on March 12, 2015. With respect to each of the applicant's claims I find as follows:

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are as follows:

- a. Whether the landlord is entitled to an Order for Possession?
- b. Whether the landlord is entitled to A Monetary Order and if so how much?
- c. Whether the landlord is entitled to retain all or a portion of the security deposit/pet deposit?
- d. Whether the landlord is entitled to recover the cost of the filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The parties entered into a written tenancy agreement that provided that the tenancy would start on February 1, 2014. The rent is subsidized and was $212 per month for January and February and was revised to $221 per month commencing March 1, 2015. The tenant paid a security deposit of $300 at the start of the tenancy. The tenant(s) failed to pay the rent for the months of January 2015 ($212 is owed), February 2015 ($212 is owed), March ($221 is owed) and April ($221 is owed) and the sum of $866 remains owing. The tenant continues to reside in the rental unit although she stated she could vacate by April 30, 2015. .

Analysis - Order of Possession:

I determined the landlord was entitled to an Order for Possession. There is outstanding rent. The Tenant(s) have not made an application to set aside the Notice to End Tenancy and the time to do so has expired. In such situations the Residential Tenancy Act provides the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ends on the effective date of the notice, and must vacate the rental unit by that date. Accordingly, I granted the landlord an Order for Possession effective April 30, 2015..

The tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, the landlord may register the Order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia for enforcement.

Analysis - Monetary Order and Cost of Filing fee

I determined the tenant has failed to pay the rent for the month(s) of January 2015 ($212 is owed), February 2015 ($212 is owed), March ($221 is owed) and April ($221 is owed) and the sum of $866 remains owing. I granted the landlord a monetary order in the sum of $866 plus the sum of $50 in respect of the filing fee for a total of $916.

Security Deposit

I determined the security deposit plus interest totals the sum of $300. I ordered the landlord may retain this sum thus reducing the amount outstanding under this monetary order to the sum of $616.

It is further Ordered that this sum be paid forthwith. The applicant is given a formal Order in the above terms and the respondent must be served with a copy of this Order as soon as possible.

Should the respondent fail to comply with this Order, the Order may be filed in the Small Claims division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
