DECISION

Dispute Codes MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for a monetary order for the cost of repairs and the filing fee. The landlord also applied to retain the security deposit.

The landlord stated that the tenant moved out in November 2014, without providing the landlord with a forwarding address. The landlord served the tenant with a copy of this application and a notice of hearing by registered mail to the place of the tenant's employment. The on line tracking information indicates that someone other than the tenant picked up the package. The tenant did not attend the hearing.

Issue to be Decided

Was the tenant served with the notice of hearing pursuant to Section 88 of the Residential Tenancy Act? If so, is the landlord entitled to his monetary claim?

Analysis

Section 88 of the Residential Tenancy Act addresses how to give or serve documents. The purpose of serving a notice of hearing under the Legislation is to notify the person being served of matters relating to arbitration. The tenant is entitled to have an opportunity to be heard at the hearing. Based on the testimony of the landlord, I am not satisfied that the notice of hearing was served in accordance with section 88 of the Act.

Conclusion

The landlord's application is dismissed with leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
