DECISION

Dispute codes OP MNR MNSD FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession and a monetary order. The hearing was conducted by conference call. The landlord called in and participated in the hearing. The tenant did not appear although she was served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing by registered mail sent on August 24, 2015.

Issues

Is the landlord entitled to the requested orders?

Background and Evidence

This tenancy began some years ago prior to the current landlord acquiring the property. The rent is $335.00 per month. The landlord served the tenant with a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment sent by registered mail on August 24, 2015. The Notice indicated that the rent was in arrears in the amount of $4355.00. The tenant has not filed an application to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy and has failed to pay any rent since the Notice was issued for the months of August, September and October.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If, as in the present case, the tenant does neither of these two things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

Conclusion

Order of Possession - Based on the above background, evidence and analysis I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Monetary Order and Security Deposit - I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $5360.00 for the outstanding rent. The landlord is entitled to recover the $50.00 filing fee for this application for a total award of $5410.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Manufactured Home Park Tenancy Act.
