DECISION

Dispute Codes

OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter was conducted by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of possession and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on January 29, 2016 at 2:30 p.m. the landlord personally served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. Service took place at the tenant's place of employment with a witness, E.N. present. The landlord submitted a proof of service document signed by landlord D.N. and witness E.N, confirming service was completed.

Therefore, based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenant has been served, pursuant to sections 89 of the Act, with the Direct Request Proceeding documents effective the date of personal delivery, January 29, 2016.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of possession?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary Order for unpaid rent?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties on November 1, 2015, indicating a monthly rent of $1,100.00 due on the first day of the month; and

- A copy of a 10 day Notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent or utilities which was issued on January 23, 2016 with a stated effective vacancy date of February 3, 2016, for $1,100.00 in unpaid rent.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the tenant has failed to pay rent owed and was personally served the 10 day Notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent or utilities on January 23, 2016, at the rental unit. The landlord provided a proof of service document signed by landlord D.N. and witness E.N., confirming service that occurred at 6:00 p.m.

The Notice indicated that the Notice would be automatically cancelled if the landlord received $1,100.00 within five days after the tenant was assumed to have received the Notice. The Notice also indicated that the tenant was presumed to have accepted that the tenancy was ending and that the tenant must move out of the rental by the date set out in the Notice unless the tenant files an Application for Dispute Resolution within five days.

The landlord has requested an Order of possession and compensation for January 2016 rent in the sum of $1,100.00.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy on January 23, 2016, as declared by the landlord. I find service was completed in accordance with section 89(1)(a) of the Act.

Section 46(1) of the Act stipulates that a 10 day Notice ending tenancy is effective 10 days after the date that the tenant receives the Notice. As the tenant received the Notice on January 23, 2016, I find that the earliest effective date of the Notice is February 2, 2016.

In the absence of evidence to the contrary, I find that the tenant was served with a Notice ending tenancy that required the tenant to vacate the rental unit on February 3, 2016; the date provided on the Notice, pursuant to section 46 of the Act.

Section 46 of the Act stipulates that a tenant has five days from the date of receiving the Notice ending tenancy to either pay the outstanding rent or to file an Application for Dispute Resolution to dispute the Notice.

In the circumstances before me I have no evidence that the tenant exercised either of these rights; therefore, pursuant to section 46(5) of the Act, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy has ended on the effective date of the Notice; February 3, 2015.

Therefore, I find, pursuant to section 55 of the Act, that the landlord is entitled to an Order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I find that the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation, pursuant section 65 of the Act, in the amount of $1,100.00 for January 2016 rent owed and I grant an Order in that amount. This Order must be served on the tenant and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an Order of that Court.

Conclusion

The landlord is entitled to an Order of possession and a monetary Order for unpaid rent.

This decision is final and binding and is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
