DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlords submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on January 22, 2016, the landlords' agent "YK" served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been received five days after service.

Based on the written submissions of the landlords, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on January 27, 2016, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlords submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenant;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord "IK" and the tenant on August 29, 2013, indicating a monthly rent of $2,280.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on September 01, 2013. The landlords provided a copy of a March 24, 2015 document titled "Addendum to the Tenancy Agreement" in which the landlords and tenant agree to extend the term of the tenancy agreement for the period of May 01, 2015 to April 30, 2016, with a new monthly rent amount of $2,340.00. The addendum was signed by the landlords' agent and the tenant and understood to form a part of the residential tenancy agreement dated August 29, 2013;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlords establish a monetary claim in the amount of $2,340.00 for outstanding rent, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for January 2016;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated January 09, 2016, which the landlords state was served to the tenant on January 09, 2016, for $2,340.00 in unpaid rent due on January 01, 2016, with a stated effective vacancy date of January 22, 2016; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice showing that the landlords' agent served the Notice to the tenant by way of registered mail on January 09, 2016. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence provided by the landlords. Section 90 of the Act provides that because the Notice was served by registered mail, the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice five days after its mailing. In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice on January 14, 2016, five days after its registered mailing.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $2,340.00, as established in the addendum to the tenancy agreement. I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay outstanding rental arrears in the amount of $2,340.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for January 2016. I find that the tenant received the Notice on January 14, 2016. I accept the landlords' undisputed evidence and find that the tenant did not pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the Notice, January 24, 2016.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order of $2,340.00 for outstanding rent, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for January 2016, as of January 21, 2016.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlords are entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $2,340.00 for outstanding rent, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for January 2016. The landlords are provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
