DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on April 07, 2016, the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been received five days after service.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on April 12, 2016, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenant;

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenant on December 05, 2011, indicating a monthly rent of $525.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on December 01, 2011;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlord establishes that there is unpaid rent in the amount of $1,200.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the period of January 2016 to March 2016. The landlord indicates that there is unpaid rent owed in the amount of $150.00 for January 2016, $525.00 for February 2016, and $525.00 for March 2016;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated March 01, 2016, which the landlord states was served to the tenant on March 01, 2016, for $1,200.00 in unpaid rent due on March 01, 2016, with a stated effective vacancy date of March 11, 2016; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice form showing that the landlord served the Notice to the tenant by way of posting it to the door of the rental unit at 11:00 AM on March 01, 2016. The Proof of Service form establishes that the service was witnessed by "JS" and a signature for "JS" is included on the form.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence provided by the landlord. Section 90 of the Act provides that because the Notice was served by posting the Notice to the door of the rental unit, the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice three days after its posting. In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice on March 04, 2016, three days after its posting.

Direct Request proceedings are ex parte proceedings. In an ex parte proceeding, the opposing party is not invited to participate in the hearing or make any submissions. As there is no ability for the tenants to participate, there is a much higher burden placed on landlords in these types of proceedings than in a participatory hearing. This higher burden protects the procedural rights of the excluded party and ensures that the natural justice requirements of the Residential Tenancy Branch are satisfied.

In this type of matter, the landlords must prove they served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding, the Notice, and all related documents with respect to the Direct Request process, in accordance with the Act and Policy Guidelines. In an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, the onus is on the landlord to ensure that all submitted evidentiary material is in accordance with the prescribed criteria and does not lend itself to ambiguity or give rise to issues that may need further clarification beyond the purview of a Direct Request Proceeding. If the landlord cannot establish that all documents meet the standard necessary to proceed via the Direct Request Proceeding, the application may be found to have deficiencies that necessitate a participatory hearing, or, in the alternative, the application may be dismissed.

The tenancy agreement provided by the landlord demonstrates that the monthly rent is due on the first day of each month. Section 46 of the Act provides that the landlord may issue a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent to the tenant after the day that rent is due. Section 46 provides, in part, the following:

Landlord's notice: non-payment of rent

46 (1) A landlord may end a tenancy if rent is unpaid on any day after the day it is due, by giving notice to end the tenancy effective on a date that is not earlier than 10 days after the date the tenant receives the notice.

The application before me includes a tenancy agreement which demonstrates that the monthly rent is due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on December 01, 2011. Therefore, in accordance with section 46 of the Act, if the rent remains unpaid after the day on which it is due, the earliest opportunity for the landlord to issue a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent would be the following day. In the matter before me, the landlord's earliest opportunity to issue the Notice to the tenant for unpaid rent owing for March 2016 would have been on the second day of March 2016.

According to the monetary worksheet provided by the landlord, the landlord establishes that there is unpaid rent owed for the months of January 2016, February 2016, and March 2016. As the landlord issued the Notice, dated March 01, 2016, on March 01, 2016, the same day of the month on which the monthly rent is due, I find that the landlord has issued the Notice to the tenant, with respect to unpaid rent owed for March 2016, earlier than permitted under section 46 of the Act.

Therefore, with respect to unpaid rent owed for March 2016, I find that the Notice is not in compliance with the provisions of section 46 of the Act and that it is not open to the landlord to seek an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent owed for March 2016.

However, the information provided on the monetary worksheet provides that the amount of $1,200.00 indicated on the Notice, dated March 01, 2016, is comprised of unpaid rent owed in the amount of $150.00 for January 2016, $525.00 for February 2016, and $525.00 for March 2016. Therefore, it remains open for the landlord to pursue an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent arising from outstanding rent owed for January 2016 and February 2016, as I find that the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent served on March 01, 2016 for the portion of unpaid rent owed for the months of January 2016 and February 2016 has been served in accordance with the Act.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $525.00, as established in the tenancy agreement. I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay outstanding rental arrears in the amount of $675.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owed for the months of January 2016 and February 2016. I find that the tenant received the Notice on March 04, 2016. I accept the landlord's undisputed evidence and find that the tenant did not pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the Notice, March 14, 2016.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession based on the March 01, 2016 Notice served to the tenant for unpaid rent owed for January 2016 and February 2016.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
