DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted two signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms which declare that on April 08, 2016, the landlord’s agent “JL” served each of the above-named tenants with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. The landlord provided two copies of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been received five days after service.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenants have been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on April 13, 2016, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- Two copies of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenants;

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord's agent and the tenants on June 19, 2015, indicating a monthly rent of $1,500.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on July 01, 2015. The landlord provided a copy of an addendum, which was signed by the parties, which demonstrates that the monthly rent was reduced to $375.00 for the period of October 2015 to February 2016 only;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlord establishes a monetary claim in the amount of $1,875.00 for outstanding rent, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the period of October 2015 to March 2016. The landlord indicates that a partial payment of $1,500.00 was received on March 29, 2016;
- A copy of a receipt, dated March 29, 2016, which demonstrates that a partial payment of $500.00 was provided by the tenant, and was acknowledged by the landlord as being received for use and occupancy only;
- A copy of a second receipt, dated March 29, 2016, which demonstrates that a partial payment of $1,000.00 was provided by the tenant, and was acknowledged by the landlord as being received for use and occupancy only;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated March 14, 2016, which the landlord states was served to the tenants on March 14, 2016, for $3,375.00 in unpaid rent due on March 01, 2016, with a stated effective vacancy date of March 29, 2016; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice showing that the landlord served the Notice to the tenants by way of registered mail on March 14, 2016. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenants had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenants did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenants did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence provided by the landlord. Section 90 of the Act provides that because the Notice was served by registered mail, the tenants are deemed to have received the Notice five days after its mailing. In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenants are deemed to have received the Notice on March 19, 2016, five days after its registered mailing.

I find that the tenants were obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $1,500.00, as established in the tenancy agreement. The landlord provided a copy of an addendum which demonstrated that the monthly rent was reduced to $375.00 for the period of October 2015 to February 2016. I accept the evidence before me that the tenants have failed to pay outstanding rental arrears in the amount of $1,875.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the period of October 2015 to March 2016. I find that the tenants received the Notice on March 19, 2016. I accept the landlord's undisputed evidence and find that the tenants did not pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenants are conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice, March 29, 2016.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order of $1,875.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the period of October 2015 to March 2016.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant(s). Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $1,875.00 for unpaid rent. The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant(s) must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
