DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on May 25, 2016, the landlord’s agent “RL” served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been received five days after service.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant has been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on May 30, 2016, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenant;

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord's agent on February 24, 2016 and signed by the tenant on February 23, 2016, indicating a monthly rent of $725.00 due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on March 01, 2016;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlord establishes a monetary claim in the amount of $750.00 for outstanding rent, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the month of May 2016;
- A copy of a letter dated May 07, 2016, from the landlord, addressed to the tenant, in which the landlord alerts the tenant to unpaid rent;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated May 03, 2016, which the landlord states was served to the tenant on May 03, 2016, for $725.00 in unpaid rent due on May 01, 2016, with a stated effective vacancy date of May 13, 2016; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice showing that the landlord's agent "KH" served the Notice to the tenant by way of posting it to the door of the rental unit on 5:30 PM on May 03, 2016. The Proof of Service form establishes that the service was witnessed by "RL" and a signature for "RL" is included on the form.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence provided by the landlord. Section 90 of the Act provides that because the Notice was served by posting the Notice to the door of the rental unit, the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice three days after its posting. In accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant is deemed to have received the Notice on May 06, 2016, three days after its posting.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $725.00, as established in the tenancy agreement. The monetary worksheet provided by the landlord indicates that there is unpaid rent owed in the amount of $750.00 for the month of May 2016. However, the landlord did not provide any documentary evidence to demonstrate why an amount of $750.00 is owed as unpaid rent for May 2016, which is a discrepancy of $25.00 when compared against the $725.00 depicted as the monthly rent owed in the tenancy agreement. As the landlord has not provided any information or evidence to support why the monetary claim for unpaid rent is depicted to be $750.00, I will rely on the information provided in the tenancy agreement, which demonstrates that the monthly rent is $725.00.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay outstanding rental arrears in the amount of $725.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the month of May 2016. I find that the tenant received the Notice on May 06, 2016. I accept the landlord's undisputed evidence and find that the tenant did not pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the Notice, May 16, 2016.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order of $725.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owing for the month of May 2016.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $725.00 for unpaid rent. The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
