DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession and a monetary order. Although served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing by registered mail actually received on June 16, 2016, the tenant did not appear.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession and, if so, on what terms?
Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order and, if so, in what amount?

Background and Evidence

This month-to-month tenancy commenced September 1, 2011. The monthly rent of $425.00 is due on the first day of the month. The tenant paid a security deposit of $200.00.

The landlord testified that the tenant was served with a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Non-Payment of Rent when it was posted to the door of the rental unit on June 1, 2016. The notice stated that the arrears of rent were $20.00 for December; $425.00 for May, and $425.00 for June. The notice included information advising the tenant that the notice is cancelled if the tenant paid the arrears of rent within five days. It also advised that the tenant had five days to dispute the notice by filing an application for dispute resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch.

The landlord testified that the tenant did not dispute the notice but on July 1, 2016, he paid $425.00 towards the rent, leaving the arrears of rent at $870.00.

Analysis

The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent in full and did not apply to dispute the Notice and is therefore conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Residential Tenancy Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant.

I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $970.00 comprised of arrears of rent in the amount of $870.00 and the $100.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application. I order that the landlord retain the deposit of $200.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $770.00.

Conclusion

- a. An order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant has been granted. If necessary, this order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.
- b. A monetary order in favour of the landlord in the amount of $770.00 has been granted. If necessary, it may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
