DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on July 13, 2016, the landlord personally served Tenant AD.W. the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. The landlord had Tenant AD.W. sign the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to confirm personal service.

The landlord submitted a second signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding, which declares that on July 13, 2016, the landlord served Tenant AA.W. the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by personally handing it to Tenant AD.W., an adult who resides with Tenant AA.W. The landlord had Tenant AD.W. sign the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to confirm this service.

The landlord submitted a third signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding, which declares that on July 13, 2016, the landlord served Tenant A.D. the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by personally handing it to Tenant AD.W., an adult who resides with Tenant A.D. The landlord had Tenant AD.W. sign the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to confirm this service.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- Three copies of the Proof of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenants;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenants on May 07, 2014, indicating a monthly rent of $750.00, due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on May 01, 2014;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during this tenancy; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated July 06, 2016, and personally handed to Tenant A.D. on July 06, 2016, with a stated effective vacancy date of July 15, 2016, for $250.00 in unpaid rent.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the 10 Day Notice was personally handed to Tenant A.D. at 2:15 p.m. on July 06, 2016. The landlord had Tenant A.D. sign the Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy to confirm personal service. The 10 Day Notice states that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with section 88 of the Act, I find that the tenants were duly served with the 10 Day Notice on July 06, 2016.

I find that the tenants were obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $750.00 as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenants have failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that 5 day period

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenants are conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, July 16, 2016.

In this type of matter, the landlord must prove they served the tenants with the Notice of Direct Request proceeding with all the required inclusions as indicated on the Notice as per Section 89 of the Act.

Section 89(1) of the Act does not allow for the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to be left with an adult who apparently resides with the tenant.

Section 89(2) of the Act does allow for the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to be left with an adult who apparently resides with the tenant, only when considering an Order of Possession for the landlord.

I find that all three Notice of Direct Request Proceedings were personally served to Tenant AD.W. and that the service requirement of section 89 (1) of the Act has only been met in regards to Tenant AD.W.

Based on the written submission of the landlord and in accordance with section 89 (1) of the Act, I find that Tenant AD.W. has been duly served with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding documents on July 13, 2016.

Based on the written submission of the landlord and in accordance with section 89 (2) of the Act, I find that Tenant AA.W. and Tenant A.D. have been duly served with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding documents on July 13, 2016, in consideration of the Order of Possession only.

For the above reason, the monetary portion of the landlord's application, naming Tenant AA.W. and Tenant A.D. as respondents, is dismissed with leave to reapply.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order against Tenant AD.W. in the amount of $250.00, the amount claimed by the landlord, for unpaid rent owing for July 2016 as of July 13, 2016.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $250.00 for rent owed for July 2016. The landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant AD.W. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant AD.W. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I dismiss the landlord's application for a monetary Order naming naming Tenant AA.W. and Tenant A.D. as respondents, with leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
