DECISION

Dispute Codes      MNSD FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) for:

- authorization to obtain a return of all or a portion of the security deposit pursuant to section 38;
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72.

The hearing was conducted by conference call. The respondent did not attend this hearing, although I waited until 1:55 p.m. in order to enable the respondent to connect with this teleconference hearing scheduled for 1:30 p.m. The applicant attended the hearing and was given a full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions.

The applicant testified that on May 26, 2016, a copy of the Application for Dispute Resolution including the Notice of Hearing and evidence package was sent to the respondent by registered mail. A registered mail tracking number was provided in support of service.

Based on the above evidence, I am satisfied that the respondent was served with the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing pursuant to sections 89 & 90 of the Act. The hearing proceeded in the absence of the respondent.

Issues

Do I have jurisdiction under the Act to make a decision on the application before me?

If yes, is the applicant entitled to a return of all or a portion of the security deposit including the filing fee for this application?

Background and Evidence

The rental unit was a bedroom in a residential house leased by the respondent. The applicant moved in as a roommate with the respondent on October 1, 2015. The applicant entered into an agreement with the respondent to rent out a bedroom in the rental unit. The kitchen and living space was shared with the respondent who is not the owner of the rental unit.

The applicant paid a $575.00 security deposit and paid a monthly rent of $575.00. A portion ($215.00) of this security deposit was returned to the respondent after he vacated the rental unit on May 1, 2016.

Analysis

Before making any finding on the merits of the claim, I must determine if I have jurisdiction under the Act to make a decision on the application before me.

Pursuant to section 2 of the Act, the Act applies to tenancy agreements, rental units and other residential property.

A tenancy agreement is defined under section 1 of the Act as follows:

"tenancy agreement" means an agreement, whether written or oral, express or implied, between a landlord and a tenant respecting possession of a rental unit, use of common areas and services and facilities, and includes a licence to occupy a rental unit;*

Landlord is defined under section 1 of the Act as follows:

"landlord", in relation to a rental unit, includes any of the following:*

...

- (c) a person, other than a tenant occupying the rental unit, who*
  - (i) is entitled to possession of the rental unit, and*
  - (ii) exercises any of the rights of a landlord under a tenancy agreement or this Act in relation to the rental unit;*

The definition of a tenancy agreement under the Act implies that it is an agreement between a landlord and a tenant. The definition of landlord under the Act specifically excludes a tenant occupying the rental unit.

As the respondent in this case is a tenant occupying the rental unit, the respondent is not a landlord as defined under the Act; therefore, the agreement entered into between the parties is not a tenancy agreement as defined under the Act.

The applicant entered into an agreement with another tenant to share accommodations with that tenant. I do not have jurisdiction under the Act for this type of living arrangement.

As the applicant was not successful in this application, I find that the applicant is not entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I find that I do not have jurisdiction over this matter.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
