DECISION

Dispute Codes CNR, O

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the tenants' Application for Dispute Resolution seeking to cancel a notice to end tenancy.

The hearing was conducted via teleconference and was attended by the landlord only.

I note that Section 55 of the Residential Tenancy Act (Act) requires that when a tenant submits an Application for Dispute Resolution seeking to cancel a notice to end tenancy issued by a landlord I must consider if the landlord is entitled to an order of possession if the Application is dismissed and the landlord has issued a notice to end tenancy that is compliant with the Act.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are whether the tenant's are entitled to cancel a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent, pursuant to Section 46 of the Act.

Should the tenants be unsuccessful in seeking to cancel the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent it must also be decided if the landlord is entitled to an order of possession pursuant to Section 55(1) of the Act.

Background and Evidence

The tenants submitted into evidence a copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent issued on October 11, 2016 with an effective vacancy date of October 20, 2016 citing the tenants owed the landlord $1,300.00 in unpaid rent and $1,193.32 in unpaid utilities.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act states a landlord may end a tenancy if rent is unpaid on any day after the day it is due, by giving notice to end the tenancy on a date that is not earlier than 10 days after the date the tenant receives the notice. A notice under this section must comply with Section 52 of the Act.

In the absence of the tenants to present their reasons as to why the above noted 10 Day Notice should be cancelled, I dismiss the tenants' Application for Dispute Resolution in its entirety and without leave to reapply.

Section 52 of the Act requires that any notice to end tenancy issued by a landlord must be signed and dated by the landlord; give the address of the rental unit; state the effective date of the notice, state the grounds for ending the tenancy; and be in the approved form.

I find the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent issued by the landlord on October 11, 2016 complies with the requirements set out in Section 52.

Section 55(1) of the Act states that if a tenant applies to dispute a landlord's notice to end tenancy and their Application for Dispute Resolution is dismissed or the landlord's notice is upheld the landlord must be granted an order of possession if the notice complies with all the requirements of Section 52 of the Act.

As I have dismissed the tenants' Application for Dispute Resolution and determined that the 10 Day Notice complies with the requirements of Section 52 of the Act, I find the landlord is entitled to an order of possession pursuant to Section 55.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenants. This order must be served on the tenants. If the tenants fail to comply with this order the landlord may file the order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia and be enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
