A matter regarding 0983481 BC LTD
and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlords submitted two signed Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding which declare that the landlords sent the tenants the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm that these mailings took place on April 5, 2017. Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenants have been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on April 10, 2017, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlords submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenants;

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and Tenant L.A.G. on December 10, 2016, indicating a monthly rent of $1,200.00, due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on January 1, 2017;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated March 24, 2017, and posted to the tenants' door on March 24, 2017, with a stated effective vacancy date of April 3, 2017, for $800.00 in unpaid rent.

Witnessed documentary evidence filed by the landlords indicates that the 10 Day Notice was posted to the tenants' door at 11:00 am on March 24, 2017. The 10 Day Notice states that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenants were deemed served with the 10 Day Notice on March 27, 2017, three days after its posting.

Paragraph 12 (1) (b) of the Residential Tenancy Regulations establishes that a tenancy agreement is required to "be signed and dated by both the landlord and the tenant."

I find that Tenant D.G. signed the residential tenancy agreement submitted by the landlords as a witness to confirm Tenant L.A.G.'s signature. I find the tenancy agreement is not signed by Tenant D.G. as a tenant, which is a requirement of the direct request process, and that a participatory hearing is necessary in order to protect the procedural rights of Tenant D.G.

However, I find that Tenant L.A.G. was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $1,200.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that Tenant L.A.G. has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that 5 day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that Tenant L.A.G. is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, April 6, 2017.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order in the amount of $800.00, the amount claimed by the landlords, for unpaid rent owing for March 2017 as of April 4, 2017.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on Tenant L.A.G. Should Tenant L.A.G. and any other occupant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlords are entitled to a Monetary Order in the amount of $800.00 for rent owed for March 2017. The landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant L.A.G. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant L.A.G. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
