DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC

This is an application brought by the tenant requesting an order canceling a Notice to End Tenancy that was given for cause.

No hearing was held however, because even though I waited until well past the time at which the hearing was to start, the applicant did not join the conference call that was set up for the hearing and therefore, pursuant to section 62 of the Residential Tenancy Act, this application will be dismissed.

Section 55 of the Residential Tenancy Act states:

55 (1) If a tenant makes an application for dispute resolution to dispute a landlord's notice to end a tenancy, the director must grant to the landlord an order of possession of the rental unit if

(a) the landlord's notice to end tenancy complies with section 52 [form and content of notice to end tenancy], and

(b) the director, during the dispute resolution proceeding, dismisses the tenant's application or upholds the landlord's notice.

In this case I have examined the Notice to End Tenancy and it is my finding that it does comply with section 52 of the Act.

Conclusion

I therefore dismiss this application without leave to re-apply, and having determined that the landlord's notice to end tenancy complies with section 52 of the Act, I have issued an Order of possession, pursuant to Section 55 of the Act, enforceable 2 days after service on the tenant.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
