DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlord submitted three signed Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding which declare that on June 10, 2017, the landlord sent Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings. Based on the written submissions of the landlord and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. have been deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on June 15, 2017, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

The landlord did not submit a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding for Tenant R.D. and has not established that Tenant R.D. has been served with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. For this reason the monetary portion of the landlord's application naming Tenant R.D. is dismissed, with leave to reapply. I will now consider the landlord's application naming Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. as respondents.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding served to the tenants;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenants on August 23, 2016, indicating a monthly rent of $2,750.00, due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on September 1, 2016;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated June 2, 2017, and personally served to the tenants on June 2, 2017, with a stated effective vacancy date of June 12, 2017, for $2,750.00 in unpaid rent.

Witnessed documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the 10 Day Notice was personally served to the tenants at 7:40 (a.m. or p.m. not indicated) on June 2, 2017. The 10 Day Notice states that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with section 88 of the Act, I find that the tenants were duly served with the 10 Day Notice on June 2, 2017.

I find that the tenants were obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $2,750.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenants have failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that 5 day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenants are conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the 10 Day Notice, June 12, 2017.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,750.00, the amount claimed by the landlord, for unpaid rent owing for June 2017 as of June 9, 2017.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. Should Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. and any other occupant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,750.00 for rent owed for June 2017. The landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant N.N, Tenant G.S., and Tenant G.M. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I dismiss the monetary portion of the landlord's application naming Tenant R.D., with leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
