A matter regarding BC HOUSING MANAGEMENT COMMISSION and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes MND, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act ("Act") for:

- a monetary order for damage to the rental unit, pursuant to section 67; and
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application, pursuant to section 72.

The landlord's agent, YL ("landlord") and the tenant attended the hearing and were each given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses.

The landlord confirmed that she was the non-profit portfolio manager for the landlord company named in this application and that she had authority to speak on its behalf as an agent at this hearing. The tenant intended to call a witness, her boyfriend GG, who was excluded from the outset of the hearing. He did not testify as the matter settled between the parties.

This hearing lasted approximately 26 minutes in order to allow both parties to negotiate a full settlement of this application. The hearing began at 2:00 p.m. with only me and the landlord present. The tenant called in late at 2:09 p.m. I informed the tenant about what occurred in her absence and then the parties agreed to engage in a settlement.

The tenant confirmed receipt of the landlord's application for dispute resolution hearing package. In accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant was duly served with the landlord's application.

Analysis

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision and an order.

During the hearing, the parties discussed the issues between them, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement of all issues with respect to this entire tenancy:

1. The tenant agreed to pay the landlord $300.00 according to the following payment plan:
 - a. $150.00 by July 31, 2017;
 - b. $150.00 by August 31, 2017;
2. The landlord agreed to bear the cost of the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application;
3. The landlord agreed that this settlement agreement constitutes a final and binding resolution of the landlord's application at this hearing and any issues arising out of this tenancy;
4. Both parties agreed that they will not initiate any future claims or applications against each other at the Residential Tenancy Branch, with respect to any issues arising out of this tenancy.

These particulars comprise a full and final settlement of all aspects of this dispute and arising out of this tenancy.

Both parties affirmed that they understood and agreed to the above terms, free of any duress or coercion. Both parties affirmed that they understood and agreed to these terms as legal, final, binding and enforceable, settling all aspects of this dispute and arising out of this tenancy.

Conclusion

The landlord must bear the cost of the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

In order to implement the above settlement reached between the parties, I issue a monetary Order in the landlord's favour in the amount of $300.00. I deliver this Order to the landlord in support of the above agreement for use only in the event that the tenant does not abide by condition #1 of the above monetary agreement. The tenant must be served with a copy of this Order as soon as possible after a failure to comply with condition #1 of the above monetary agreement. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
