A matter regarding COLLIN JOHNSON INC
and [Tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The Landlord submitted two signed copies of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceedings which declares that on September 7, 2017, the Landlord sent both Tenants individual copies of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The Landlord provided copies of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings. Based on the written submissions of the Landlord and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the Tenants were deemed served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on September 12, 2017, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the Landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the Landlord and both Tenants on June 28, 2017, indicating a monthly rent of $1,750.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on July 1, 2017;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated August 3, 2017, and sent to the Tenants by registered mail on August 3, 2017 with a stated effective vacancy date of August 13, 2017, for $1,750.00 in unpaid rent.

Documentary evidence filed by the Landlord indicates that the 10 Day Notice was sent by registered mail to both Tenants to the rental unit on August 3, 2017. The 10 Day Notice states that the Tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end. The Landlord provided both copies of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the Tenants were deemed served with the 10 Day Notice on August 8, 2017, five days after the registered mailings. The Landlord provided copies of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings.

I find that the Tenants were obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $1,750.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that the Tenants have failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that 5 day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the Tenants have conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, August 18, 2017.

Therefore, I find that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order in the amount of $1,750.00, the amount claimed by the Landlord, for unpaid rent owing for August 2017 as of September 6, 2017.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the Landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the Tenant(s). Should the Tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I grant the Landlord a Monetary Order in the amount of $1,750.00 for rent owed for August 2017. The Landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms and the Tenant(s) must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the Tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
