DECISION

Dispute Codes OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlords submitted two signed Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding which declare that on December 15, 2017, the landlords sent each of the tenants the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings. Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenants are deemed to have been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on December 20, 2017, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlords submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlords on September 12, 2017 and Tenant M.D. on September 13, 2017, indicating a monthly rent of $1,600.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on September 15, 2017;

- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent dated December 2, 2017 for $800.00 in unpaid rent for November 2017 (the November 10 Day Notice). The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of December 13, 2017;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent dated December 2, 2017 for $1,600.00 in unpaid rent for December 2017 (the December 10 Day Notice). The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of December 13, 2017;
- A copy of a Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form which was signed by Tenant K.D., indicating that the two 10 Day Notices were personally served to the tenants at 12:00 pm on December 2, 2017; and
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with section 88 of the Act, I find that the tenants were duly served with the November 10 Day Notice and the December 10 Day Notice on December 2, 2017.

Paragraph 12 (1) (b) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation establishes that a tenancy agreement is required to be “signed and dated by both the landlord and the tenant.”

I find that Tenant K.D. has not signed the tenancy agreement, which is a requirement of the direct request process. For this reason, the monetary portion of the landlords’ application naming Tenant K.D. as a respondent is dismissed without leave to reapply.

However, I find that Tenant M.D. was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $1,600.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that Tenant M.D. has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that five day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that Tenant M.D. is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the 10 Day Notices, December 13, 2017.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,400.00, the amount claimed by the landlords, for unpaid rent owing for November 2017 and December 2017 as of December 13, 2017.

As the landlords were successful in this application, I find that the landlords are entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on Tenant M.D. Should Tenant M.D. and any other occupant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I grant the landlords a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,500.00 for rent owed for November 2017 and December 2017 and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant M.D. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant M.D. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
