DECISION

Dispute Codes: CNC

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant for an order to set aside a notice to end tenancy for repeated late payment of rent. Both parties attended the hearing and had opportunity to be heard.

The parties stated that they had filed evidence at the RTB but had not served a copy of their evidence to the other party. Accordingly, evidence filed by both parties was not used in the making of this decision. Both parties gave affirmed testimony.

Issue to be Decided

Does the landlord have grounds to end this tenancy?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began in 2008. The monthly rent is $1,295.00 due on the first of each month. On November 30, 2017, the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for cause with an effective date of December 31, 2017. The tenant disputed the notice in a timely manner.

The reason for the notice was that the tenant was repeatedly late paying rent and was discussed at length. During the hearing the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute under the following terms.

- The tenant agreed to move out by 1:00 pm on April 01, 2018.
- The landlord agreed to extend the tenancy up to 1:00 pm on April 01, 2018. An order of possession will be issued in favour of the landlord effective this date.
- The tenant agreed to pay full rent for March 2018 on March 01, 2018.
- Both parties acknowledged that they understood and agreed with the above terms of their agreement.

The tenant and the landlord have reached a settled agreement, as recorded above. This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act. The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act. Should either party violate the terms of this settled agreement, the tenancy agreement or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act to seek remedy.

Conclusion

Pursuant to section 55, I am issuing a formal order of possession effective by 1:00 pm on April 01, 2018. The Order may be filed in the Supreme Court for enforcement.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
