DECISION

Dispute Codes      ET, FF

Introduction

Pursuant to section 58 of the Residential Tenancy Act ("Act"), I was designated to hear an application regarding the above-noted tenancy. The landlord applied for:

- an early end to tenancy and an Order of Possession, pursuant to section 56; and
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application, pursuant to section 72.

The two tenants did not attend this hearing, which lasted approximately 6 minutes. The landlord attended the hearing and was given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses.

Preliminary Issue – Service of Landlord's Application

The landlord testified that the tenants were served with his application for dispute resolution hearing package by way of email. He did not know the date of service.

Section 89(1) of the Act outlines the methods of service for an application for dispute resolution, which reads in part as follows:

89 (1) An application for dispute resolution ..., when required to be given to one party by another, must be given in one of the following ways:

- (a) by leaving a copy with the person;*
- (b) if the person is a landlord, by leaving a copy with an agent of the landlord;*
- (c) by sending a copy by registered mail to the address at which the person resides or, if the person is a landlord, to the address at which the person carries on business as a landlord;*

- (d) if the person is a tenant, by sending a copy by registered mail to a forwarding address provided by the tenant;*
- (e) as ordered by the director under section 71 (1) [director's orders: delivery and service of documents].*

The landlord was unable to confirm a date of service. Service by email is not permitted under section 89 of the Act. Accordingly, I find that the landlord failed to prove service in accordance with section 89(1) of the Act and the two tenants were not served with the landlord's application.

At the hearing, I advised the landlord that I was dismissing his application with leave to reapply, except for the filing fee. I notified him that he would be required to file a new application and pay a new filing fee, if he wished to pursue this matter further.

Conclusion

The landlord's application to recover the $100.00 filing fee is dismissed without leave to reapply.

The remainder of the landlord's application is dismissed with leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
