DECISION

Dispute Codes OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding form which declares that on June 15, 2018, the landlord served the tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via registered mail. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing. Section 90 of the Act determines that a document served in this manner is deemed to have been received five days after service.

The Canada Post website provides details associated with the tracking number for the registered mail item which the landlord asserts was mailed to the tenant. The information associated with the tracking number demonstrates that the registered mail item was received and signed-for by the tenant on June 15, 2018. An electronic signature for the tenant is included as part of the tracking history to confirm that the tenant received the registered mail item on June 15, 2018. Therefore, I find that the tenant has been served with the served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on June 15, 2018.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenant on November 29, 2017, indicating a monthly rent of $1,710.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on December 01, 2017;
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing during the portion of this tenancy in question, on which the landlord establishes a monetary claim in the amount of $1,710.00 for outstanding rent, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owed by June 01, 2018;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the Notice) dated June 04, 2018, which the landlord states was served to the tenant on June 04, 2018, for $1,710.00 in unpaid rent due on June 01, 2018, with a stated effective vacancy date of June 15, 2018; and
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice showing that the landlord served the Notice to the tenant by way of posting it to the door of the rental unit on June 04, 2018. The Proof of Service form establishes that the service was witnessed by "AL" and a signature for "AL" is included on the form. The landlord also indicates that the landlord served the Notice to the tenant by way of registered mail on June 04, 2018. The landlord provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing.

The Notice restates section 46(4) of the Act which provides that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the effective date of the Notice. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice within five days from the date of service and the landlord alleged that the tenant did not pay the rental arrears.

Analysis

The Canada Post website provides details associated with the tracking number for the registered mail item, which the landlord asserts was the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent mailed to the tenant. The information associated with the tracking number demonstrates that the registered mail item was received and signed-for by the tenant on June 05, 2018. An electronic signature for the tenant is included as part of the tracking history to confirm that the tenant received the registered mail item on June 05, 2018. Therefore, I find that the tenant has been served with the served with the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent on June 05, 2018.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay monthly rent in the amount of $1,710.00, as established in the tenancy agreement. I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay rental arrears in the amount of $1,710.00, comprised of the balance of unpaid rent owed by June 01, 2018 for the month of June 2018.

I accept the landlord's undisputed evidence and find that the tenant did not pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act and did not apply to dispute the Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice, June 15, 2018.

Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary Order of $1,710.00 for unpaid rent owed by June 01, 2018 for the month of June 2018.

As the landlord was successful in this application, I find that the landlord is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I find that the landlord is entitled to a monetary Order in the amount of $1,810.00 for unpaid rent, and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with these Orders, these Orders may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
