DECISION

Dispute Codes: CNC, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant for an order to set aside a notice to end tenancy for cause and for the recovery of the filing fee. Both parties attended the hearing and had opportunity to be heard. The parties acknowledged receipt of evidence submitted by the other and gave affirmed testimony.

Issue to be Decided

Does the landlord have grounds to end this tenancy?

Background and Evidence

On April 30, 2018, the landlord served the tenant with a notice to end tenancy for cause. The tenant disputed the notice in a timely manner. The parties agreed that the notice was served on the tenant because the local by-law officer found that the rental unit was in contravention of the City by-laws and instructed the landlord to end the tenancy and bring the unit into compliance.

The reasons for the notice were discussed at length. During the hearing, the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the hearing, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute. Specifically, it was agreed that the landlord would withdraw the notice to end tenancy and allow the tenancy to continue on the following terms:

Both parties agreed to the following terms:

1. The tenant would carry out the required changes to bring the rental unit into compliance with the City by-laws and would have this work completed by October 31, 2018.
2. The landlord agreed to cover the filing fee that the tenant paid to make this application.
3. Both parties confirmed that they understood and agreed to the terms of this agreement.

The parties have reached a settled agreement, as recorded above. This agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Act. The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act. Should either party violate the terms of this settled agreement, the tenancy agreement or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act to seek remedy. The notice to end tenancy is set aside and the tenancy will continue.

Conclusion

The notice to end tenancy is set aside and the tenancy will continue.

The tenant may make a one-time deduction of $100.00 from a future rent.
