DECISION

Dispute Codes ET, FFL

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for:

- an early end to this tenancy and an Order of Possession pursuant to section 56; and
- authorization to recover the filing fee for this application from the tenants pursuant to section 72.

Both parties attended the hearing and were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present their sworn testimony, to make submissions, to call witnesses and to cross-examine one another.

As the tenants confirmed that they received a copy of the landlord's dispute resolution hearing package on May 26, 2018, I find that the tenants were duly served with this package in accordance with section 89 of the Act. Since both parties confirmed that they had received one another's written evidence, I find that the written evidence was served in accordance with section 88 of the Act.

Issues(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an early end to this tenancy and an Order of Possession?
Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application from the tenant?

Analysis

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During the hearing, the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following final and binding resolution of their dispute:

1. Both parties agreed that this tenancy will end by 9:00 p.m. on June 15, 2018, by which time the tenants will have surrendered vacant possession of the rental unit to the landlord.
2. Both parties agreed that this settlement agreement constituted a final and binding resolution of the landlord's application and that they did so of their own free will and without any element of force or coercion.

Conclusion

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties and as discussed at the hearing, I issue the attached Order of Possession to be used by the landlord if the tenants do not vacate the rental premises in accordance with their agreement. The landlord is provided with these Orders in the above terms and the tenant(s) must be served with an Order in the event that the tenant(s) do not vacate the premises by the time and date set out in their agreement. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
