DECISION

Dispute Codes OPRM-DR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlords submitted three signed Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding which declare that on July 18, 2018, the landlords sent each of the tenants the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipts containing the Tracking Numbers to confirm these mailings. Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenants are deemed to have been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on July 23, 2018, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlords submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and Tenant Ho.Z. on February 2, 2014, indicating a monthly rent of $2,400.00, due on the thirty-first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on February 1, 2014;

- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated June 10, 2018, for $3,951.71 in unpaid rent and $770.13 in unpaid utilities. The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of June 21, 2018;
- A copy of a witnessed Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form which indicates that the 10 Day Notice was personally served to the tenants at 9:00 am on June 12, 2018; and
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with section 88 of the Act, I find that the tenants were duly served with the 10 Day Notice on June 12, 2018.

Paragraph 12 (1) (b) of the Residential Tenancy Regulation establishes that a tenancy agreement is required to be “signed and dated by both the landlord and the tenant.”

I find that Tenant Ta.Z. and Tenant Ty.Z. have not signed the tenancy agreement, which is a requirement of the direct request process. For this reason, the monetary portion of the landlords’ application naming Tenant Ta.Z and Tenant Ty.Z. as respondents is dismissed without leave to reapply.

However, I find that Tenant Ho.Z. was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $2,400.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that Tenant Ho.Z. has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that five day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that Tenant Ho.Z. is conclusively presumed under sections 46(5) and 53(2) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, June 22, 2018.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary award in the amount of $3,951.71, the amount claimed by the landlords, for unpaid rent owing for the period of February 2018 to June 2018 as of July 11, 2018.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on Tenant Ho.Z. Should Tenant Ho.Z. and any other occupant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I grant the landlords a Monetary Order in the amount of $3,951.71 for rent owed for the period of February 2018 to June 2018. The landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant Ho.Z. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant Ho.Z. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I dismiss the monetary portion of the landlords' application naming Tenant Ta.Z. and Tenant Ty.Z. as respondents without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
