DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, OPC, MNR, MDSD & FF

The Application for Dispute Resolution filed by the landlord makes the following claims:

- a. An Order for Possession for non-payment of rent and for cause.
- b. A monetary order in the sum of $1937.50 for unpaid rent and damages
- c. An order to retain the security deposit and pet damage deposit.
- d. An order to recover the cost of the filing fee

The tenant(s) failed to appear at the scheduled start of the hearing which was 11:00 a.m. on July 30, 2018. A representative of the landlord was present and ready to proceed. I left the teleconference hearing connection open and did not start the hearing until 10 minutes after the schedule start time in order to enable the tenant to call in. The tenants failed to appear. I confirmed that the correct call-in numbers and participant codes had been provided in the Notice of Hearing. I then proceeded with the hearing. The representative of the landlord was given a full opportunity to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses.

On the basis of the solemnly affirmed evidence presented at that hearing, a decision has been reached. All of the evidence was carefully considered.

I find that the one month Notice to End Tenancy was served on the Tenant by posting on May 14, 2018. I find that the 10 day Notice to End Tenancy was personally served on the Tenant on June 1, 2018. Further I find that the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Dispute Resolution Hearing was personally served on Tenant on June 7, 2018. With respect to each of the applicant's claims I find as follows:

Issue(s) to be Decided:

The issues to be decided are as follows:

- a. Whether the landlord is entitled to an Order for Possession?
- b. Whether the landlord is entitled to A Monetary Order and if so how much?
- c. Whether the landlord is entitled to retain all or a portion of the security deposit/pet deposit?
- d. Whether the landlord is entitled to recover the cost of the filing fee?

Background and Evidence:

The parties entered into a written tenancy agreement that provided that the tenancy would start on December 1, 2017. The rent is $725 per month payable on the first day of each month. It was subsequently reduced to $700 per month. The tenant paid a security deposit of $362.50 at the start of the tenancy. He has also made payments to be applied to a pet damage deposit that totals $175.

The tenant(s) failed to pay the rent for the months of June 2018 and July 2018 and the sum of $1400 remains owing. The tenant(s) vacated the rental unit on July 28, 2018. .

Landlord's Application - Order of Possession:

I determined the landlord was entitled to an Order for Possession. The landlord served a one month Notice to End Tenancy and a 10 day Notice to End Tenancy on the Tenant. Both Notices are in the approved form. The Tenant(s) have not made an application to set aside the Notice to End Tenancy and the time to do so has expired. In such situations the Residential Tenancy Act provides the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ends on the effective date of the notice, and must vacate the rental unit by that date. Accordingly, I granted the landlord an Order for Possession on 2 days notice.

The tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, the landlord may register the Order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia for enforcement.

Analysis - Monetary Order and Cost of Filing fee:

I determined the tenant has failed to pay the rent for the month(s) of June 2018 and July 2018 and the sum of $1400 remains outstanding. I determined the landlord has given sufficient notice of their intention to claim for all of last month as provided in the Application for Dispute Resolution. I granted the landlord a monetary order in the sum of $1400 plus the sum of $100 in respect of the filing fee for a total of $1500.

Security Deposit:

I determined the security deposit and the pet damage deposit totals the sum of $537.50. I ordered the landlord may retain the security deposit and pet damage deposit in the sum of $537.50 thus reducing the amount outstanding under this monetary order to the sum of $962.50.

Conclusion:

I granted an Order of Possession on 2 days notice. I ordered that the landlord shall retain the security deposit and pet damage deposit which totals $537.50. I further ordered that the Tenant pay to the landlord the sum of $962.50.

It is further Ordered that this sum be paid forthwith. The applicant is given a formal Order in the above terms and the respondent must be served with a copy of this Order as soon as possible.

Should the respondent fail to comply with this Order, the Order may be filed in the Small Claims division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is final and binding on the parties.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
