DECISION

Dispute Codes: MNSD

Introduction

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the tenant filed July 16, 2018 pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for a Monetary Order to recover the security deposit in the amount of $362.50.

Preliminary issue – Service of Documents

The tenant and their representative attended the conference call hearing. The landlord did not. The tenant stated they sent the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding (Notice of Hearing) and all of their evidence by regular mail to the landlord's residential / mailing address in Alberta. They have not received a response from the landlord or otherwise any acknowledgement from the landlord that they received the tenant's mail for this matter. The tenant did not present evidence that they employed other means to serve the tenant as prescribed by the Act.

Analysis

The full text of the Act, and other resources, can be accessed via the Residential Tenancy Branch website: www.gov.bc.ca/landlordtenant.

Section 89 of the Act states as follows (emphasis added)

Special rules for certain documents

89 (1) An application for dispute resolution or a decision of the director to proceed with a review under Division 2 of Part 5, when required to be given to one party by another, must be given in one of the following ways:

- (a) by leaving a copy with the person;
- (b) if the person is a landlord, by leaving a copy with an agent of the landlord;

(c) by sending a copy by registered mail to the address at which the person resides or, if the person is a landlord, to the address at which the person carries on business as a landlord;

(d) if the person is a tenant, by sending a copy by registered mail to a forwarding address provided by the tenant;

(e) as ordered by the director under section 71 (1) [director's orders: delivery and service of documents].

Section 89 of the Act is deliberately operates to lend evidentiary weight and credibility to the presumption of service if a party is served in accordance with the methods prescribed. I find the tenant did not provide evidence of service in accordance with the Act notifying the landlord of today's hearing. I am not sufficiently satisfied the landlord has knowledge of today's hearing. Therefore, I must dismiss the tenant's application, but I do so, with leave to reapply.

None of the potential merits of this application were heard.

It must be known that failure to accept documents by a method prescribed within Section 89 of the Act does not conclusively nullify service; and, that the deeming provisions set out by Section 90 of the Act apply. It must further be known that it remains available to

Conclusion

The tenant's application is dismissed, with leave to reapply.

This Decision is final and binding.

This Decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
