DECISION

Dispute Codes OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The Landlord submitted two signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms, which declare that on November 20, 2018 at 11:40 a.m. the Landlord handed each of the Tenants, JG and LS, a copy of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. The Landlord provided a copy of a Proof of Service of Direct Request Proceeding signed by the Tenants and by a witness to confirm this service. Based on the written submissions of the Landlord and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the Tenants were duly served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on November 20, 2018.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the Landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Is the Landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement, which was signed by the Landlord and the Tenants on July 16, 2018, indicating a monthly rent of $1,700.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on August 1, 2018;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated November 2, 2018, for $2,700.00 in unpaid rent. The 10 Day Notice provides that the Tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of November 12, 2018;
- A copy of a witnessed Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form, which indicates that the 10 Day Notice was handed to the Tenant J.G. at 12:37 p.m. on November 2, 2018; and
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the Tenants were duly served with the 10 Day Notice on November 2, 2018, when it was handed to Tenant J.G., as witnessed by the Landlord's associate.

I find that the Tenants were obligated to pay the unpaid monthly rent in the amount of $2,700.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that the Tenants failed to pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that five day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the Tenants are conclusively presumed under sections 46(5) and 53(2) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the 10 Day Notice, November 12, 2018.

Therefore, I find that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary award in the amount of $2,700.00, the amount claimed by the Landlord, for unpaid rent owing for October and November 2018 as of November 20, 2018.

As the Landlord was successful in this application, I find that the Landlord is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the Landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the Tenants. Should the Tenants fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I grant the Landlord a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,800.00 for rent owed for October and November 2018 and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The Landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms and the Tenants must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the Tenants fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
