DECISION

Dispute Codes FFL OPRM-DR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlords submitted a Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding form which declares that on November 22, 2018, the landlords sent the tenant the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing. Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant is deemed to have been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on November 27, 2018, the fifth day after its registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlords submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the tenant on June 3, 2018 and the landlords on June 4, 2018, indicating a monthly rent of $2,100.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on June 4, 2018;
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated November 6, 2018 for $2,100.00 in unpaid rent. The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenant had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of November 21, 2018;
- A copy of a Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form which indicates that the Landlords sent the 10 Day Notice on November 6, 2018, by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the Tracking Number to confirm this mailing.
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant was served with the 10 Day Notice on November 11, 2018, the fifth day after its registered mailing.

I find that the tenant was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $2,100.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that five day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the stated effective date of the 10 Day Notice, November 21, 2018.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary award in the amount of $2,100.00, the amount claimed by the landlords, for unpaid rent owing for November 2018 as of November 21, 2018.

As the landlords were successful in this application, I find that the landlords are entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on the tenants. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I grant the landlords a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,200.00 for rent owed for November 2018 and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and the tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
