Dispute Codes: MNDC, MNSD, FF.

Introduction

This hearing dealt with applications by the landlord and the tenant, pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act. The landlord applied for a monetary order to recover the cost of repairs, for the loss of income, for the filing fee and to retain the security deposit in satisfaction of his claim. The tenant applied for the return of double the deposit, for the cost of cleaning, for the return of rent for four days and for the recovery of the filing fee.

Both parties attended this hearing and were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses. Both parties represented themselves. As both parties were in attendance I confirmed service of documents. The parties confirmed receipt of each other's evidence. I find that the parties were served with evidence in accordance with sections 88 and 89 of the Act.

Issues to be decided

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order? Is the tenant entitled to the return of double the security deposit?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy started in June 2018. The monthly rent was $755.00 due on the first of the month. Prior to moving in, the tenant paid a security deposit of $377.50. On August 03, 2018, the tenant gave the landlord notice to end the tenancy effective August 31, 2018. The landlord agreed that he received the forwarding address of the tenant on August 31, 2018 and made this application on December 17, 2018.

During the hearing the parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the hearing, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle these matters, on the following conditions:

1. The landlord agreed to return $150.00 to the tenant and retain the balance of the security deposit in full and final settlement of all claims against the tenant.
2. The tenant agreed to accept $150.00 from the landlord and agreed to allow the landlord to retain the balance of the security deposit in full and final settlement of all claims against the landlord. A monetary order in favour of the tenant for this amount will be granted to the tenant.
3. The parties stated that they understood and agreed that the above particulars comprise of full and final settlement of all aspects of the dispute for both parties.

The tenant and the landlord have reached a settled agreement, as recorded above. This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act. The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act. Should either party violate the terms of this settled agreement, the tenancy agreement or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act to seek remedy.

Conclusion

Pursuant to the above agreement, I grant the tenant a monetary order under section 67 of the Residential Tenancy Act in the amount of $150.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.
