DECISION

Dispute Codes MNSD, MNDCT, FFT

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the Tenant's Application for Dispute Resolution filed under the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"). The Tenant applied for a monetary order for money owed or compensation for damage or loss, for the return of her security deposit, and to recover her filing fee. The matter was set for a conference call.

The Tenant attended the conference call hearing and was affirmed to be truthful in her testimony. As the Landlord did not attend the hearing, service of the Notice of Dispute Resolution Hearing was considered. Section 59 of the Act states that the respondent must be served with a copy of the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing. The Tenant testified that the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing documents had been served on the Landlord, by Canada Post Registered mail, sent on September 17, 2018, a Canada post tracking number was provided as evidence of service. I find that the Landlord had been duly served in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act.

The Tenant was provided with the opportunity to present her evidence orally and in written and documentary form, and to make submissions at the hearing.

I have reviewed all evidence and testimony before me that met the requirements of the rules of procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this Decision.

Issues to be Decided

- Has there been a breach of Section 38 of the Act by the Landlord?
- Is the Tenant entitled to the return of her security deposit?
- Is the Tenant entitled to a monetary order for money owed or compensation for damage or loss?
- Is the Tenant entitled to recover the filing fee for this application?

Background and Evidence

The Tenant testified that the tenancy began on July 1, 2018, as a month to month tenancy. Rent in the amount of $1,375.00 was to be paid by the first day of each month and the Landlord had been given a $687.50 security deposit at the outset of this tenancy. The Tenant provided a copy of the receipt of payment for the deposits into documentary evidence.

The Tenant testified that she ended her tenancy and moved out of the rental on September 1, 2018. The Tenant testified that she and the Landlord conducted the move-out inspection, the same day and that she provided her forwarding address in writing to the Landlord during the move-out inspection. The Tenant also testified that she did not agree to any deduction to the deposits.

The Tenants testified that the Landlord has not returned the deposits to her or served her with notification of the Landlord making a claim against the deposits as of the date of this hearing.

Analysis

Based on the testimony, the documentary evidence before me, and on a balance of probabilities, I find as follows:

Section 38(1) of the Act gives the landlord 15 days from the later of the day the tenancy ends or the date the landlord receives the tenant's forwarding address in writing to file an Application for Dispute Resolution claiming against the deposits or repay the security deposit and pet damage deposit to the tenant.

Return of security deposit and pet damage deposit

38 (1) Except as provided in subsection (3) or (4) (a), within 15 days after the later of

- (a) the date the tenancy ends, and
 - (b) the date the landlord receives the tenant's forwarding address in writing,
- the landlord must do one of the following:
- (c) repay, as provided in subsection (8), any security deposit or pet damage deposit to the tenant with interest calculated in accordance with the regulations;
 - (d) make an application for dispute resolution claiming against the security deposit or pet damage deposit.

I the testimony of the Tenant, and find that this tenancy ended on September 1, 2018, the date the Tenant moved out of the rental unit and provided her forward address to the Landlord. Accordingly, the Landlord had until October 16, 2018, to comply with section 38(1) of the Act by either repaying the deposits in full to the Tenant or submitting an Application for Dispute resolution to claim against the deposits. The Landlords, in this case, did neither.

At no time does a landlord have the right to simply keep the security deposit because they feel they are entitled to it or are justified to keep it. If the landlord and the tenant are unable to agree, in writing, to the repayment of the security deposit or that deductions be made, the landlord must file an Application for Dispute Resolution within 15 days of the end of the tenancy or receipt of the forwarding address, whichever is later. It is not enough that the landlord thinks they are entitled to keep even a small portion of the deposit, based on unproven claims.

I find that the Landlord breached section 38 (1) of the Act by not returning the Tenant's deposits or filing a claim against the deposits within the statutory timeline.

Section 38 (6) of the Act goes on to state that if the landlord does not comply with the requirement to return or apply to retain the deposit within the 15 days, the landlord must pay the tenant double the security deposit.

Return of security deposit and pet damage deposit

- 38 (6) If a landlord does not comply with subsection (1), the landlord
- (a) may not make a claim against the security deposit or any pet damage deposit, and
 - (b) must pay the tenant double the amount of the security deposit, pet damage deposit, or both, as applicable.

Therefore, I find that pursuant to section 38(6) of the Act the Tenant has successfully proven that she is entitled to the return of double her deposits. I find for the Tenant, in the amount of $1,375.00, granting a monetary order for the return of double the security deposit and pet damage deposit.

Section 72 of the Act gives me the authority to order the repayment of a fee for an application for dispute resolution. As the Tenant has have been successful in her application, I find that the Tenant is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I find that the Landlord breached section 38 of the Act when she failed to repay or make a claim against the security deposit and pet damage deposit as required by the Act.

I find for the Tenant pursuant to sections 38 and 72 of the Act. I grant the Tenant a Monetary Order in the amount of $1,475.00. The Tenant is provided with this Order in the above terms, and the Landlord must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the Landlord fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
