DECISION

Dispute Codes CNR, CNC, ERP, MNDCT, RR

Introduction

On December 7, 2018, the Tenant filed an Application for Dispute Resolution under the Residential Tenancy Act ("the Act") to cancel a 10-Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities (the "10-Day Notice") issued on December 6, 2018, to cancel a One-Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause, (the "One-Month Notice") issued on November 27, 2018, for an order for the Landlord to make emergency repairs to the rental unit, for an Order for the Landlord to make regular repairs to the rental unit, and for a Monetary Order for compensation. The matter was set for a conference call.

Both the Landlords and the Tenant attended the hearing and were each affirmed to be truthful in their testimony. The Landlords and Tenant were provided with the opportunity to present their evidence orally and in written and documentary form, and to make submissions at the hearing. The parties testified that they exchanged the documentary evidence that I have before me.

In a case where a tenant has applied to cancel a Notice, Rule 7.18 of the Residential Tenancy Branch Rules of Procedure require the landlord to provide their evidence submission first, as the landlord has the burden of proving cause sufficient to terminate the tenancy for the reasons given on the Notice.

I have reviewed all oral and written evidence before me that met the requirements of the Rules of Procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this decision.

Preliminary Matters- Related Issues

I have reviewed the Tenant's application, and I note that he has applied to cancel two Notices to end tenancy as well as for several other issues. I find that some of these other issues are not related to the Tenant's request to cancel these Notices. As these matters do not relate directly to a possible end of the tenancy, I apply section 2.3 of the Residential Tenancy Branches Rules of Procedure, which states:

2.3 Related issues

Claims made in the application must be related to each other. Arbitrators may use their discretion to dismiss unrelated claims with or without leave to reapply.

Therefore, I am dismissing with leave to reapply, the Tenant's claims for an order for the Landlord to make emergency repairs to the rental unit, for an Order for the Landlord to make regular repairs to the rental unit and for a Monetary Order for compensation.

I will proceed with this hearing on the Tenant's claim to cancel the 10-Day Notice and to Cancel the One-Month Notice.

Issues to be Decided

- Should the Notice issued on December 6, 2018, be cancelled?
- Should the Notice issued on November 27, 2018, be cancelled?
- If not, is the Landlord entitled to an order of possession?

Background and Evidence

The parties agreed that the tenancy began on June 1, 201. Rent in the amount of $1000.00 is to be paid by the first day of each month, and the Landlord is holding a $500.00 security deposit for this tenancy.

The Landlords testified that they served the 10-Day Notice to the Tenant on December 2, 2018, by posting it to the front door of the rental unit. The 10-Day Notice has an effective date of December 10, 2018, and an outstanding rent amount of $1,000.00.

The Landlords also testified that the Tenant had not paid the outstanding rent on the Notice for December 2018 and had also not paid the rent for January 2019.

The Tenant testified that he had not paid the rent for December 2018 or January 2019.

The Landlords are requesting that the Notice be enforced and that an order of possession be issued, as the Tenant did not pay the rent within five days of receiving the 10-Day Notice as required.

Analysis

Based on the above, the testimony and evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find as follows:

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for Non-payment of Rent a tenant must, within five days, either pay the amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If the tenant does not do either of these things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice under section 46(5).

Landlord's notice: non-payment of rent

- 46 (1) A landlord may end a tenancy if rent is unpaid on any day after the day it is due, by giving notice to end the tenancy effective on a date that is not earlier than 10 days after the date the tenant receives the notice.
- (2) A notice under this section must comply with section 52 [form and content of notice to end tenancy].
- (3) A notice under this section has no effect if the amount of rent that is unpaid is an amount the tenant is permitted under this Act to deduct from rent.
- (4) Within 5 days after receiving a notice under this section, the tenant may
- (a) pay the overdue rent, in which case the notice has no effect,
 - or
 - (b) dispute the notice by making an application for dispute resolution.
- (5) If a tenant who has received a notice under this section does not pay the rent or make an application for dispute resolution in accordance with subsection (4), the tenant
- (a) is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ends on the effective date of the notice, and
 - (b) must vacate the rental unit to which the notice relates by that date.

I find that the Tenant received the 10-Day notice on December 5, 2018, three days after it was posted to the front door of the rental unit, pursuant to section 90 of the Act and that she did apply to dispute the Notice within the legislated timeline.

I accept the agreed upon testimony of both parties that the Tenant had not paid the outstanding rent as stated on the 10-Day Notice within the required five days. Therefore, I find that the Tenant is in breach of section 26 of the Act by not paying the rent in accordance with the tenancy agreement and I dismiss the Tenant's application to cancel the 10-Day Notice.

Section 55 of the Act states that a landlord may request an order of possession if a notice to end the tenancy has been given by the landlord and the tenant has not disputed the notice by making an application for dispute resolution and the time for making that application has expired.

Order of possession for the landlord

55 (1) If a tenant makes an application for dispute resolution to dispute a landlord's notice to end a tenancy, the director must grant to the landlord an order of possession of the rental unit if

- (a) the landlord's notice to end tenancy complies with section 52 [form and content of notice to end tenancy], and
- (b) the director, during the dispute resolution proceeding, dismisses the tenant's application or upholds the landlord's notice.

I have reviewed the 10-Day Notice to End Tenancy, and I find the 10-Day Notice complies with section 52 of the Act. As I have dismissed the Tenant's application, pursuant to section 55 of the Act, I must grant the Landlords an order of possession to the rental unit.

I find that the Landlord is entitled to an order of possession, pursuant to section 55 of the Act, effective two days after service on the Tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court. The Tenant is cautioned that costs of such enforcement are recoverable from the Tenant.

As this tenancy is ending in accordance with the 10-Day Notice, I find that there is no need to address the Tenant's additional claim to dispute the One-Month Notice.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the Landlord effective two days after service of this Order on the Tenant. Should the Tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
