DECISION

Dispute Codes ET

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the landlord's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for an early end of tenancy pursuant to section 56.

Both parties attended the hearing and were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present sworn testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses. The corporate landlord was represented by its agent. The tenant represented himself with assistance.

As both parties were present service of documents was confirmed. The parties confirmed receipt of the respective materials. I find based on the testimonies that the parties were served with the respective documents in accordance with the Act.

Analysis

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order. During the hearing the parties discussed the issues between them, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Both parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement of all issues currently under dispute at this time:

1. This tenancy will end on 9:00 Am July 25, 2019, by which time the tenant and any other occupants will have vacated the rental unit.

2. This settlement agreement constitutes a final and binding resolution of the landlord's application at this hearing.

Both parties testified at the hearing that they understood and agreed to the above terms, free of any duress or coercion. Both parties testified that they understood and agreed that the above terms are legal, final, binding and enforceable, which settle all aspects of this dispute.

Conclusion

To give effect to the settlement reached between the parties and as advised to both parties during the hearing, I issue the attached Order of Possession to be served on the tenant by the landlord only if the tenants and any other occupants fail to vacate the rental premises by 9:00 a.m. on July 25, 2019. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
