DECISION

Dispute Codes RPP

Introduction

Pursuant to section 58 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), I was designated to hear an application regarding the above-noted tenancy. The tenant applied for a return of personal property pursuant to section 65. :

This matter was set for hearing by telephone conference call at 11:00 am on July 2, 2019. The line remained open while the phone system was monitored for fifteen minutes and no participant called into the hearing during this time. The phone lines were confirmed to be functioning normally. The Notice of Hearing was confirmed to provide the correct phone numbers and access codes to call into the conference call.

Rule 7.3 of the Rules of Procedure provides as follows:

7.3 Consequences of not attending the hearing – If a party or their agent fails to attend the hearing, the arbitrator may conduct the dispute resolution hearing in the absence of that party, or dismiss the application with or without leave to reapply.

Section 59(2)(b) of the Act provides that an application for dispute resolution must include the full particulars of the dispute that is to be the subject of the dispute resolution proceedings.

In the present case the applicant provided no documentary evidence, no details of their claim and chose not to attend the scheduled hearing.

Accordingly, as neither the applicant nor the respondent attended the hearing by 11:10am and in the absence of any evidence or submissions I order the application dismissed without leave to reapply. I make no findings on the merits of the matter. The issuance of this decision does not extend any applicable deadlines under the Act.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
