DECISION

Dispute Codes CNR, LAT, LRE, RP

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the tenant's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for:

- cancellation of the landlord's 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) pursuant to section 46;
- an order to the landlord to make repairs to the rental unit pursuant to section 33;
- an order to allow access to or from the rental unit or site for the tenant or the tenant's guests pursuant to section 70;
- an order to suspend or set conditions on the landlord's right to enter the rental unit pursuant to section 70;

While the landlords attended the hearing by way of conference call, the tenant did not. I waited until 11:10 a.m. to enable the tenant to participate in this scheduled hearing for 11:00 a.m. The landlords were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses.

Rule 7.3 of the Rules of Procedure provides as follows:

7.3 Consequences of not attending the hearing

If a party or their agent fails to attend the hearing, the arbitrator may conduct the dispute resolution hearing in the absence of that party, or dismiss the application, with or without leave to re-apply.

The tenant is the applicant in this matter and chose not to participate in this teleconference or submit any documentation for this hearing, accordingly; I hereby dismiss their application in its entirety without leave to reapply.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession based on the 10 Day Notice?

Background and Evidence

The landlord gave the following testimony. The tenancy began on July 1, 2019 with the monthly rent of $1980.00 due on the first of each month. The tenant paid a security deposit of $990.00 which the landlord still holds. The landlord testified that the tenant has not made a single rent payment since moving in.

The landlord testified that the tenant was served a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities on July 24, 2019. The agent testified at the time the notice was issued, the tenant owed $1980.00 in unpaid rent and that they have failed to pay the rent for August and September as well. The landlord requests an order of possession.

Analysis

Section 55(1) of the Act reads as follows:

- 55 (1) If a tenant makes an application for dispute resolution to dispute a landlord's notice to end a tenancy, the director must grant to the landlord an order of possession of the rental unit if
- (a) the landlord's notice to end tenancy complies with section 52 [form and content of notice to end tenancy], and
 - (b) the director, during the dispute resolution proceeding, dismisses the tenant's application or upholds the landlord's notice.

As the tenant chose not to attend the hearing, I order the tenant's application dismissed without liberty to reapply. I find that the 10 Day Notice complies with section 52 of the Act. The landlord provided documentation and undisputed testimony to support the issuance of the notice and that notice is confirmed, accordingly; the tenancy is terminated.

Based on my decision to dismiss the tenant's application for dispute resolution and pursuant to section 55 of the Act, I find that the landlords are entitled to a 2-day Order of Possession. The landlords will be given a formal Order of Possession which must be served on the tenant. If the tenant does not vacate the rental unit within the 2 days required, the landlords may enforce this Order in the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Conclusion

As the tenant did not attend this hearing, their entire application is dismissed without leave to reapply.

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two (2) days after service on the tenants. Should the tenant or anyone on the premises fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
