DECISION

Dispute Codes OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlord submitted a copy of three Canada Post Customer Receipts containing Tracking Numbers to confirm packages were sent to each of the tenants.

The landlord also submitted a copy of a photograph showing three Proofs of Service of the Notices of Direct Request Proceeding attached to a door.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Is the landlord entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Analysis

In an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, the onus is on the landlord to ensure that all submitted evidentiary material is in accordance with the prescribed criteria and that such evidentiary material does not lend itself to ambiguity or give rise to issues that may need further clarification beyond the purview of a Direct Request Proceeding. If the landlord cannot establish that all documents meet the standard necessary to proceed via the Direct Request Proceeding, the application may be found to have deficiencies that necessitate a participatory hearing, or, in the alternative, the application may be dismissed.

In this type of matter, the landlord must prove they served the tenants with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding with all the required inclusions as indicated on the Notice as per section 89 of the Act.

I note that the landlord submitted a copy of three Canada Post Customer Receipts containing three Tracking Numbers to confirm packages were sent to the tenants.

The landlord also submitted a copy of a photograph showing three Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms attached to a door; however, I find that photograph is of poor quality and that the information contained on the forms is illegible.

The Notice of Direct Request Proceeding forms should include landlord statements establishing service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding documents to the tenants. As I am unable to read these landlord statements, I find that I am not able to confirm what documents were included in the registered mailings or what date the packages were sent to the tenants.

I find that I am not able to confirm service of the Notice of Direct Request to the tenants, which is a requirement of the Direct Request Process, and for this reason the landlord's application for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the landlord was not successful in this application, I find that the landlord is not entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the landlord's application for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the landlord's application to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
