DECISION

Dispute Codes MNSDS-DR, FFT

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 38.1 of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the tenant for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit (the deposit).

The tenant submitted a signed Proof of Service Tenant's Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on April 27, 2020, the tenant sent the landlord the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by e-mail. The tenant provided a copy of an outgoing e-mail containing attachments of the supporting documents to confirm this service.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the tenant entitled to monetary compensation for the return of a security deposit pursuant to sections 38 and 67 of the Act?

Is the tenant entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Analysis

In this type of matter, the tenant must prove they served the landlord with the Notice of Direct Request proceeding with all the required inclusions as indicated on the Notice as per section 89 of the Act.

The Residential Tenancy Branch's Director's Order on e-mail service dated March 30, 2020 provides that a document required to be served in accordance with sections 88 and 89 of the Act may be sent by e-mail and is considered received if:

- The person acknowledges having received the e-mail;
- The person replies to the e-mail; or
- The sender and recipient e-mail addresses have been routinely used for tenancy matters.

On the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding, the tenant has indicated they sent the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to the landlord by e-mail. The tenant has provided a copy of the outgoing e-mail, however, I find that the sent item does not include the landlord's e-mail address, where the documents were sent.

The tenant has also not submitted a copy of an e-mail reply from the landlord, an acknowledgement from the landlord that they received the e-mail, or a copy of previous e-mails exchanged between the landlord and the tenant to demonstrate the e-mail accounts were regularly used for tenancy issues.

I find I am not able to determine whether the tenant's e-mail service can be considered received in accordance with the Director's Order.

As I am not able to confirm service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding, which is a requirement of the Direct Request process, the tenant's application for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the tenant was not successful in this application, I find that the tenant is not entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the tenant's application for a Monetary Order for the return of the security deposit with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the tenant's application to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
