DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC

Introduction

This hearing was scheduled in response to the tenant's application pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act") for:

- an order to cancel One Month Notice for Cause pursuant to section 47(4) of the Act.

Both parties, the landlord BR, his Property Manager VL, the tenant Advocate and law student AP attended the hearing and were each given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions, and to call witnesses.

The Advocate testified the landlord was served the Notice of Dispute Resolution together with the evidentiary package via Canada Post registered mail on April 8, 2020. The Property Manager VL testified the tenant was served with the evidentiary package via Canada Post registered mail on May 12, 2020. As neither party raised an issue on service of documents, I find that both parties were served, and this satisfies the service requirements set out in sections 88 and 89 of the Act.

Canada Post tracking number are listed on the cover page of this decision.

Issues to be Decided

Is the tenant entitled to cancel the One Month Notice pursuant to section 47 of the Act?

If the tenant fails in her application, is the landlord entitled to an Order of Possession pursuant to section 55 of the Act?

Settlement

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During the hearing the parties discussed the issues between them, engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute. The agreement was read over to the parties twice to ensure that they understood the settlement.

The parties agreed to the following final and binding settlement:

1. The tenant agrees to vacate the rental unit on Monday August 31, 2020 at 1:00 P.M. Should the tenant fail to vacate, the landlord can serve the attached Order of Possession.
2. Tenant agrees that she will maintain the peace with the neighbouring tenants and will ensure her noise levels are kept at a minimal, and that there will be no further disruption to her neighbours.
3. The tenancy ends on the effective date of August 31, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.

Both parties gave verbal sworn affirmation at the hearing that they understood and agreed to the above terms as legal, final and binding, which settle all aspects of this dispute.

The landlord and tenant testified that they understood that the above terms are legal, final, binding and enforceable.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlord effective 2 days after service on the tenant. Should the tenant or anyone on the premises fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Act. The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act. Should either party violate the terms of this agreement, the tenancy agreement or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act for an appropriate remedy.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
