DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNRL-S, MNDCL-S, FFL

Introduction

On April 17, 2020 the Landlord submitted an Application for Dispute Resolution (the “Application”), seeking relief pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) for the following:

- a monetary order for unpaid rent or utilities;
- an order granting authorization to retain the security deposit;
- an order of possession for unpaid rent; and
- an order granting recovery of the filing fee.

The hearing was scheduled for 9:30 A.M. on June 4, 2020 as a teleconference hearing. The Landlord’s Agent appeared and provided affirmed testimony. No one appeared for the Tenant. The conference call line remained open and was monitored for 14 minutes before the call ended. I confirmed that the correct call-in numbers and participant codes had been provided in the Notice of Hearing. During the hearing, I also confirmed from the online teleconference system that the Landlord’s Agent and I were the only persons who had called into this teleconference.

The Landlord’s Agent testified the Application and documentary evidence package was served to the Tenant by registered mail on April 20, 2020. The Landlord’s Agent provided the tracking information during the hearing in support. Based on the oral and written submissions of the Applicant, and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the Tenant is deemed to have been served with the Application and documentary evidence on April 25, 2020. The Tenant did not submit documentary evidence in response to the Application.

Preliminary Matters

At the start of the hearing, the Landlord's Agent stated that the Landlord is no longer seeking any monetary compensation, therefore, the Landlord's Agent requested to withdraw the monetary claims in the Landlord's Application. The Landlord's Application was amended accordingly. The hearing continued based on the Landlord's Application for an order of possession based on the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy.

The Landlord's Agent was given an opportunity to present evidence orally and in written and documentary form, and to make submissions to me. I have reviewed all oral and written evidence before me that met the requirements of the Rules of Procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this Decision.

Issue(s) to be Decided

1. Is the Landlord entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent, pursuant to Section 55 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord's Agent testified that the tenancy began on October 27, 2018. Rent in the amount of $800.00 is due to the Landlord on the first day of each month. The Tenant paid a security deposit in the amount of $400.00. The Landlord's Agent stated that the Tenant has moved out of the rental unit, however, the Landlord is still seeking an order of possession for unpaid rent to ensure he will have legal vacant possession of the rental unit.

The Landlord's Agent testified the Tenant did not pay rent in the amount of $800.00 when due on December 1, 2019. Subsequently, the Landlord issued a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent or Utilities, dated January 4, 2020 (the "10 Day Notice") with an effective vacancy date of January 14, 2020. The Landlord's Agent stated that the 10 Day Notice was served to the Tenant in person on January 4, 2020.

The Landlord's Agent stated that the Tenant did not pay the outstanding rent as indicated on the 10 Day Notice and has not paid any amount of rent since. The Landlord is also seeking an order of possession based on the unpaid rent. As noted above, the Tenant did not attend the hearing to dispute the Landlord's evidence.

Analysis

Section 26 of the Act explains that the Tenant must pay rent when it is due under the Tenancy Agreement, whether or not the Landlord complies with this Act, the Regulations or the Tenancy Agreement, unless the Tenant has a right under this Act to deduct all or a portion of the rent. As I do not have any evidence before me that the Tenant had a right under this Act to deduct any of their rent, I find that the Tenant is in breach of Section 26 of the Act.

Section 46 of the Act states a Landlord may end a tenancy if rent is unpaid on any day after the day it is due, by giving notice to end the tenancy effective on a date that is not earlier than 10 days after the date the tenant receives the notice.

I find based on the Landlord's Agent's uncontested testimony that the Landlord served the 10 Day Notice dated January 4, 2020 with an effective vacancy date of January 14, 2020, to the Tenant in person on January 4, 2020. Pursuant to sections 88 and 90 of the Act, documents served in this manner are deemed to be received on the same date. I find the Tenant is deemed to have received the 10 Day Notice on January 4, 2020.

Section 46(4) says that within 5 days after receiving a notice under this section, the tenant may either pay the overdue rent, in which case the notice has no effect, or dispute the notice by making an application for dispute resolution. Therefore, the Tenant had until January 9, 2020 to either pay the outstanding rent owed to the Landlord in full, or make an Application for dispute resolution.

I accept the Landlord's Agent's undisputed testimony that after service of the 10 Day Notice, the Tenant failed to pay the remaining balance of rent owing in the amount of $800.00 for December 2019, and paid no rent to the Landlord since. As the Tenant did not pay all the rent owed according to the 10 Day Notice within 5 days and there is no evidence before me that the Tenant disputed the 10 Day Notice, I find the Tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted the tenancy ended on the effective date of the 10 Day Notice, January 14, 2020, pursuant to section 46(5) of the Act.

I find that the 10 Day Notice complies with the requirements for form and content and as the effective date of the 10 Day Notice has passed, I find that the Landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective 2 (two) days, after service on the Tenant, pursuant to section 55 of the Act. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court. The Tenant is cautioned that costs of such enforcement are recoverable from the Tenant.

Conclusion

The Tenant has breached the Act by not paying rent when due to the Landlord. The Landlord is granted an order of possession, which will be effective two (2) days after service on the Tenant. This order should be served as soon as possible and may be filed in and enforced as an order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
