DECISION

Dispute Codes OLC, CNE

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant under the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for the following:

- Cancellation of a One Month Notice to end tenancy for end of employment pursuant to section 48;
- An order requiring the landlord to comply with the Act pursuant to section 62.

The landlord attended with his agent TF ("the landlord"). The tenant connected to the hearing 7 minutes after the hearing started. The parties were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, make submissions, and call witnesses. I explained the hearing process and provided the parties with an opportunity to ask questions. The parties did not raise any issues regarding the service of evidence.

At the outset, the landlord corrected the spelling of his name which is amended throughout.

Before the conclusion of this hearing, the parties discussed the issues between them, engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise, and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties do so during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a Decision or an Order.

Given the agreement reached between the parties during the proceedings, I find that the parties have settled their dispute and the following records this settlement as a Decision:

The parties agreed as follows:

1. The tenancy between the parties will end at 1:00 PM on January 31, 2021, by which time the tenant and any other occupants will return vacant possession of the rental unit to the landlord;
2. The landlord withdrew all outstanding Notices to End Tenancy for Cause;
3. The tenant withdrew her claim under section 62.

In support of this settlement and with the agreement of both parties, I grant the landlord an Order of Possession effective 1:00 PM on January 31, 2021. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, the Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act. Should either party violate the terms of this agreement, the tenancy agreement or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act for an appropriate remedy.

Conclusion

Pursuant to the settlement between the parties, I grant the landlord an Order of Possession effective 1:00 PM on January 31, 2021.

This Order must be served on the tenant. Should the tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
