DECISION

Dispute Codes CNC

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant pursuant to section 47 of the Residential Tenancy Act. The tenant applied to cancel a notice to end tenancy for cause.

Both parties attended this hearing and were given a full opportunity to be heard, to present affirmed testimony, to make submissions and to call witnesses. The parties represented themselves.

As both parties were in attendance, I confirmed service of documents. The parties confirmed receipt of each other's evidence. I find that the parties were served with evidentiary materials in accordance with sections 88 and 89 of the Act.

Issues to be decided

Has the landlord validly issued the notice to end tenancy?

Background and Evidence

The parties agreed that on September 27, 2020, the landlord served the tenant with a one-month notice to end tenancy for cause. During the hearing, both parties engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Analysis

Pursuant to Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties settle their dispute and if the parties settle their dispute during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a decision or an order.

During this hearing, the parties reached an agreement to settle their dispute under the following terms.

1. The tenant agreed to move out by 1:00 pm on January 31, 2021.
2. The landlord agreed to extend the tenancy up to 1:00 pm on January 31, 2021. An order of possession will be issued to the landlord, effective this date.
3. Both parties acknowledged that this agreement is final and binding and stated that they understood and agreed with the above terms of their agreement.
4. The parties agreed to exercise any additional goodwill and spirit of cooperation necessary in regard to the above undertakings, which might be required to achieve a positive end to this landlord – tenant relationship.

Pursuant to the above agreement, I grant the landlord an order of possession under section 55 of the Residential Tenancy Act effective by 1:00 pm on January 31, 2021. Should the tenant fail to comply with the order, the order may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

The tenant and the landlord have reached a settled agreement, as recorded above. This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act. The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act. Should either party violate the terms of this settled agreement, the tenancy agreement or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act to seek remedy.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord an order of possession effective by 1:00 pm on January 31, 2021.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
