DECISION

Dispute Codes      OPL, FFL

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the Landlord filed under the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) to enforce a Two Month Notice to End Tenancy for Landlord’s Use of the Property (the “Notice”) issued on June 29, 2020. The matter was set for a conference call.

The Landlord and the Landlord’s Agent (the “Landlord”) attended the hearing and was affirmed to be truthful in their testimony. As the Tenant did not attend the hearing, service of the Notice of Dispute Resolution Hearing was considered. Section 59 of the Act states that the respondent must be served with a copy of the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing. The Landlord testified that they served the Application for Dispute Resolution and the Notice of hearing documents to the Tenant by posting them to the front door of the rental unit on October 14, 2020; a proof of service document was provided as proof of service. I find that the Tenant has been duly served in accordance with the Act.

The Landlord was provided with the opportunity to present their evidence orally and in written and documentary form and to make submissions at the hearing.

I have reviewed all oral and written evidence before me that met the requirements of the Rules of Procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this decision.

Issues to be Decided

- Is the Landlord entitled to an order of possession, pursuant to section 55 of the Act?
- Is the Landlord entitled to the recovery of the filing fee for their application?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord testified that they are the purchaser of the property and that the previous owner had issued a Notice to end this tenancy at their request. The Landlord testified that the ownership of this property was transferred to them as of August 30, 2020. The Landlord submitted a copy of the purchaser's request for vacant possession into documentary evidence.

The Landlord testified that the Notice to end this tenancy was issued to the Tenant on June 29, 2020, by personal service of the previous owner. The Notice indicated an end of tenancy date of August 31, 2020. The Landlord submitted a copy of the Notice into documentary evidence.

The Landlord testified that the Tenant had not served the Landlord with an application to show they had disputed the Notice.

The Landlord testified that the Tenant had not moved out in accordance with the Notice and that they are seeking an order of possession.

Analysis

Based on the evidence before me, the testimony of the Landlord, and on a balance of probabilities:

Section 49 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for Landlord Use of the Property, a tenant must, within 15 days, dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If the tenant does not do this, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy will end on the effective date of the Notice under section 49(9) of the Act.

Landlord's notice: landlord's use of property

49 (8) A tenant may dispute

- (a) a notice given under subsection (3), (4) or (5) by making an application for dispute resolution within 15 days after the date the tenant receives the notice, or
- (b) a notice given under subsection (6) by making an application for dispute resolution within 30 days after the date the tenant receives the notice.

(9) If a tenant who has received a notice under this section does not make an application for dispute resolution in accordance with subsection (8), the tenant

- (a) is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ends on the effective date of the notice, and
- (b) must vacate the rental unit by that date.

I find that the Tenant had personally received the Notice to end the tenancy on June 29, 2020. Pursuant to section 49(8) the Act, the Tenant had 15 days to dispute the Notice. I find that the Tenant did not dispute the Notice to End Tenancy and that the time for doing so has expired.

Therefore, I find that the Tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted the Notice and that the tenancy would end in accordance with that Notice. I find the Notice issued on June 29, 2020, is valid and enforceable.

I find that the Landlord is entitled to an order of possession, pursuant to section 55 of the Act, effective not later than 2 days after service of this Order upon the Tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

The Tenant is cautioned that the costs of such enforcement are recoverable from the Tenant.

Section 72 of the Act gives me the authority to order the repayment of a fee for an application for dispute resolution. As the Landlord has been successful in their application, I find that the Landlord is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this hearing. I award the Landlord a monetary order in the amount of $100.00.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the Landlord, effective not later than 2 days after service of this Order upon the Tenant. The Tenant must be served with this Order. Should the Tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

I find for the Landlord under section 72 of the Act. I grant the Landlord a Monetary Order in the amount of $100.00. The Landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms, and the Tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the Tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
