DECISION

Dispute Codes      ET

Introduction

On December 30, 2020, the Landlords submitted an Application for Dispute Resolution under the Residential Tenancy Act (“the Act”) for an early end of tenancy and an order of possession for the rental unit.

The matter was set for a conference call hearing. The Landlords and Tenant attended the hearing.

At the start of the hearing I introduced myself and the participants. The hearing process was explained. The parties were provided with an opportunity to ask questions about the hearing process.

Settlement Agreement

At the start of the hearing the parties agreed to settle this dispute on the following conditions:

1. The parties agreed that the tenancy will end on February 7, 2021.
2. The parties agreed that the Landlord is granted an order of possession for the rental unit effective February 7, 2021, at 1:00 p.m.
3. The Landlord withdraws their application for an early end of tenancy in full as part of this mutually settled agreement.

This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Act. The opportunity for settlement was discussed with the parties during the hearing. The parties were advised there is no obligation to resolve the dispute through settlement, but that I could assist the parties to reach an agreement. I indicated that if either party did not wish to resolve this matter through a mutually agreed settlement, I was prepared to hear their evidence and make a decision.

Conclusion

I order the parties to comply with the terms of their mutually settled agreement described above.

The Landlords have been granted an order of possession effective February 7, 2021, at 1:00 p.m. For enforcement, this order must be served on the Tenant and may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is final and binding on the parties, unless otherwise provided under the Act, and is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
