DECISION

Dispute Codes OPC FF

Introduction

This hearing was convened as a result of the Landlord's Application for Dispute Resolution. The participatory hearing was held on February 11, 2021. The Landlord applied for the following relief, pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"):

- an order of possession based on a One Month Notice to End Tenancy for Cause (the Notice); and,
- to recover the filing fee from the tenant for the cost of this application.

The Landlord attended the hearing. However, the Tenant did not attend the hearing. The Landlord provided registered mail tracking information showing she mailed (to the rental unit) the Notice of Hearing and evidence to the Tenant on November 30, 2020. Pursuant to section 88 and 90 of the Act, the Tenant is deemed served with this package 5 days after it was mailed.

The Landlord was given a full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions. I have reviewed all oral and written evidence before me that met the requirements of the Rules of Procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this Decision.

Issue to be Decided

- Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession under the Act?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord stated that she served the Tenant with the Notice by leaving a copy of the Notice in the Tenant's mailbox on October 15, 2020. A copy of the Notice was provided into evidence. The Tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice.

The Notice indicates several reasons for ending the tenancy. The Landlord stated that the Tenant refuses to move out, and has not fixed any of the issues raised by the Landlord.

Analysis

Based on the testimony and documentary evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find:

After reviewing the Notice, I am satisfied that it complies with section 52 of the Act [form and content of notice to end tenancy]. Section 47 of the Act permits a landlord to end a tenancy for cause. A tenant who receives a notice to end tenancy for cause has 10 days after receipt to dispute it by making an application for dispute resolution. Failure to dispute the notice to end tenancy for cause in this period results in the conclusive presumption that the tenant has accepted the end of the tenancy, under section 47(5) of the Act.

In this case, the Landlord issued the Notice for several reasons. Based on the Landlord's testimony and the Proof of Service document submitted, I am satisfied that the Landlord served the Tenant with the Notice, by placing the package in the Tenant's mailbox on October 15, 2020. Pursuant to sections 88 and 90 of the Act, documents served in this manner are deemed to be received 3 days later. I find the Tenant received the Notice on October 18, 2020.

The Tenant had 10 days, until October 28, 2020, to dispute the notice, but did not do so. Accordingly, pursuant to section 47(5) of the Act, I find the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted the end of the tenancy on the effective date of the Notice.

Therefore, the Landlord is entitled to an order of possession, which will be effective two days after service on the tenant.

As the Landlord's application was successful, and pursuant to section 72 of the Act I grant the Landlord the recovery of the cost of the filing fee in the amount of $100.00. I authorize the Landlord to retain $100.00 from the Tenant's $375.00 security deposit in full satisfaction of the recovery of the cost of the filing fee, which I find leaves a security deposit balance of $275.00.

Conclusion

The landlord is granted an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the tenant. If the tenant fails to comply with this order the landlord may file the order with the Supreme Court of British Columbia and be enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
