DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR-DR, OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The applicants submitted a signed Proof of Service Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on February 22, 2021, the applicants sent the tenant the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by registered mail to the rental unit. The applicants provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the tracking number to confirm this mailing. Based on the written submissions of the applicants and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the tenant is deemed to have been served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on February 27, 2021, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the applicants entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the applicants entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Are the applicants entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The applicants submitted the following relevant evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which names a landlord who is not one of the applicants and was signed by the tenant on June 1, 2020, indicating a monthly rent of $1,100.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on June 1, 2020

- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated February 2, 2021, for $1,125.00 in unpaid rent. The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenant had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of February 15, 2021
- A copy of a witnessed Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form which indicates that the 10 Day Notice was posted to the tenant's door at 2:30 (am or pm not indicated) on February 2, 2021
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy

Analysis

In an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, the onus is on the applicant to ensure that all submitted evidentiary material is in accordance with the prescribed criteria and that such evidentiary material does not lend itself to ambiguity or give rise to issues that may need further clarification beyond the purview of a Direct Request Proceeding. If the applicant cannot establish that all documents meet the standard necessary to proceed via the Direct Request Proceeding, the application may be found to have deficiencies that necessitate a participatory hearing, or, in the alternative, the application may be dismissed.

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and I find that the business landlord's name on the tenancy agreement and the 10 Day Notice does not match either of the individual landlords named on the Application for Dispute Resolution. There is also no evidence or documentation showing that the applicants are the owners of the rental property or are otherwise entitled to have orders issued in their names.

As this is an ex parte proceeding that does not allow for any clarification of the facts, I have to be satisfied with the documentation presented. The discrepancy in the applicants' names raises a question that cannot be addressed in a Direct Request Proceeding.

For this reason, the applicants' request for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent is dismissed with leave to reapply.

As the applicants were not successful in this application, I find that the applicants are not entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I dismiss the applicants' request for an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent with leave to reapply.

I dismiss the applicants' request to recover the filing fee paid for this application without leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
