DECISION

Dispute Codes OPRM-DR, OPR-DR, FFL

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord under the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for the following:

- A monetary order for unpaid rent and for compensation for damage or loss under the Act, Residential Tenancy Regulation (“Regulation”) or tenancy agreement pursuant to section 67 of the Act;
- An order for possession under a 10-Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (“Ten-Day Notice”) and pursuant to sections 46 and 55;
- Authorization to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72.

The agent JB attended for the landlord (“the landlord”). The landlord provided affirmed testimony that the landlord served the tenants (“the tenant”) separately with the Notice of Hearing and Application for Dispute Resolution by registered mail sent on February 8, 2021 and deemed received by the tenants under section 90 of the Act five days later, that is, on February 13, 2021.

The landlord provided the Canada Post Tracking Numbers and copies of receipts in support of service. Further to the landlord’s testimony and supporting documents, I find the landlord served each tenant with the Notice of Hearing and Application for Dispute Resolution on February 13, 2021 pursuant to sections 89 and 90.

The tenant did not attend the hearing. I kept the teleconference line open from the scheduled time for the hearing for an additional 25 minutes to allow the tenant the opportunity to call. The teleconference system indicated only the landlord and I had called into the hearing. I confirmed the correct call-in number and participant code for the tenant was provided.

Preliminary Amendments

At the outset, the landlord requested an amendment to the landlord's application to change the monetary order for outstanding rent to $6,440.00. The landlord's application submitted January 11, 2020, pre-dated the due date for amounts owing for rent for subsequent months.

The landlord also requested an amendment to apply the security deposit of $800.00 to the award.

Section 4.2 of the Rules of Procedure provides that a landlord's monetary claim may be amended at the hearing in circumstances that can reasonably be anticipated, such as when the amount of rent owing has increased since the time the Application for Dispute Resolution was made.

I find the tenant could reasonably anticipate the landlord's claim would be amended to include accruing rent and to apply the security deposit to the award. The amendments would not be prejudicial to the respondent.

Pursuant to my authority under section 64(3)(c) of the Act, I amended the landlord's applications to increase the landlord's overall claim for outstanding rent to $6,440.00 and to apply the security deposit of $800.00 to the award.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to the relief requested?

Background and Evidence

The landlord provided uncontradicted affirmed testimony as the tenant did not appear at the hearing.

The parties entered into a written tenancy agreement beginning September 1, 2020 for monthly rent of $1,600.00 payable on the first of the month. The tenant paid a security deposit to the landlord at the beginning of the tenancy of $800.00. The landlord holds the deposit. The tenant has not provided written authorization to the landlord to apply the deposit to outstanding rent. The landlord submitted a copy of the tenancy agreement.

The landlord testified as the arrears of rent as set out earlier. The landlord submitted copies of ledgers in support of the calculation of the amount of rent owing and a Monetary Order Worksheet.

The landlord testified the landlord posted the Ten-Day Notice to the tenant's door on December 10, 2020 thereby effecting service under section 90 of the Act on December 13, 2020. The landlord submitted a copy of the Ten-Day Notice as evidence which is in the standard RTB form. The Notice states the arrears of rent are $1,600.00.

The Ten-Day Notice provides the tenant had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution, or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date December 20, 2020, corrected to December 23, 2020. The landlord testified the tenant did not pay the amount owing in full.

The tenant did not apply to cancel the Notice.

The landlord provided uncontradicted testimony the amounts claimed remain unpaid and owing to the landlord.

The landlord submitted a Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy indicating amounts outstanding as stated above at the time the Ten-Day Notice was served and at the hearing.

The tenant continues to occupy the unit.

Analysis

The tenant has not attended the arbitration although served with the Notice of Hearing in compliance with the Act.

I find the form and content of the Ten-Day Notice complies with section 52 of the Act. I accept the landlord's testimony and find that the tenant was served with the Ten-Day Notice as testified and in accordance with the Act.

I accept the landlord's testimony and documentary evidence and find the tenant did not pay the overdue amount or dispute the Ten-Day Notice within the five-day period following service.

Pursuant to section 46(5), the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted the tenancy ends on the effective date of the Notice requiring the tenant to vacate the rental unit by that date.

Based on the landlord's testimony and evidence including testimony that the tenant continues to reside in the unit, I find the landlord has met the burden of proof on a balance of probabilities for an Order of Possession.

I therefore grant the landlord an Order of Possession effective two days after service.

Based on the uncontradicted testimony and documentary evidence of the landlord, I grant the landlord a monetary award pursuant to section 67 for outstanding rent in the amount of $6,440.00. I authorize the landlord to apply the security deposit to the award.

As the landlord was successful in this application, I award the landlord the amount of $100.00 for reimbursement of the filing fee.

My award to the landlord is summarized in the following table:

ITEM	AMOUNT
Outstanding rent	$6,440.00
Filing fee	$100.00
(Less security deposit)	($800.00)
TOTAL AWARD LANDLORD	$5,740.00

In summary, I grant the landlord a Monetary Order for $5,740.00 and an Order of Possession effective two days after service.

Conclusion

I grant the landlord a Monetary Order for $5,740.00 and an Order of Possession effective two days after service. These Orders must be served on the tenant. If the tenant fails to comply with these Orders, the landlord may file the Orders with the Courts of British Columbia to be enforced as Orders of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
