DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR-DR, OPRM-DR, FFL

Introduction

This hearing dealt with the adjourned Direct Request Application by the Landlord filed under the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) on January 12, 2021. The Landlord is requesting an order of possession to enforce a 10-Day Notice for Unpaid Rent and Utilities (the “Notice”) dated January 2, 2021, for a monetary order for unpaid rent, and to recover the filing fee paid for this application. The matter was set for a conference call.

The Landlord attended the hearing and were each affirmed to be truthful in their testimony. As the Tenant did not attend the hearing, service of the Notice of Dispute Resolution Hearing was considered. Section 59 of the Act states that the respondent must be served with a copy of the Application for Dispute Resolution and Notice of Hearing. The Landlord testified that they served the Tenant with the Notice of Hearing documents by personal service to the Tenant at the rental unit on February 6, 2021. I find that the Tenant had been duly served with the Notice of Hearing in accordance with the Act.

The Landlord was provided with the opportunity to present their evidence orally and in written and documentary form and to make submissions at the hearing.

I have reviewed all oral and written evidence before me that met the requirements of the Rules of Procedure. However, only the evidence relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this Decision.

Issues to be Decided

- Is the Landlord entitled to an order of possession pursuant to section 55 of the Act?
- Is the Landlord entitled to a monetary order for unpaid rent?
- Is the Landlord entitled to the return of their filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The Landlord testified that the tenancy began on October 1, 2020, that rent in the amount of $1,350.00 is to be paid by the first day of each month and that no security deposit or pet damage depots had been collected for this tenancy. The Landlord submitted a copy of the tenancy agreement into documentary evidence.

The Landlord testified that they served the Tenant with the Notice to End Tenancy by posting the Notice to the front door of the rental unit on January 2, 2021, listing an outstanding rent amount of $2,250.00 and an effective date of January 12, 2021. The Notice informed the Tenant of the right to dispute the Notice or pay the outstanding rent within five days after receiving it. The Notice also informed the Tenant that if an application to dispute the Notice or payment of the outstanding rent in full is not made within five days, the Tenant is presumed to have accepted the Notice and must move out of the rental unit on the date set out on page one of the Notice. The Landlord testified that they had not received notification from the Tenant that they had disputed the Notice. The Landlord submitted a copy of the Notice into documentary evidence.

The Landlord testified that the Tenant has not paid the outstanding rent as indicated on the Notice and that they had not paid the rent for the subsequent months of February, March and April 2021, and that of the date of these proceeding there is $6,300.00 in outstanding rent due for this tenancy.

The Landlord testified that they are requesting a Monetary Order for the outstanding rent.

Analysis

Based on the above, the testimony and evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find as follows:

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for Non-payment of Rent, a tenant must, within five days, either pay the amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If the tenant does not do either of these things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice under section 46(5).

Landlord's notice: non-payment of rent

46 (1) A landlord may end a tenancy if rent is unpaid on any day after the day it is due, by giving notice to end the tenancy effective on a date that is not earlier than 10 days after the date the tenant receives the notice.

(2) A notice under this section must comply with section 52 [form and content of notice to end tenancy].

(3) A notice under this section has no effect if the amount of rent that is unpaid is an amount the tenant is permitted under this Act to deduct from rent.

(4) Within 5 days after receiving a notice under this section, the tenant may

(a) pay the overdue rent, in which case the notice has no effect, or

(b) dispute the notice by making an application for dispute resolution.

(5) If a tenant who has received a notice under this section does not pay the rent or make an application for dispute resolution in accordance with subsection (4), the tenant

(a) is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ends on the effective date of the notice, and

(b) must vacate the rental unit to which the notice relates by that date.

I accept the undisputed testimony of the Landlord that the Tenant did not pay the outstanding rent or dispute the Notice within five days of receiving the Notice.

Therefore, I find that the Tenant has not paid the rent or disputed the Notice, within the legislated timeline and is conclusively presumed to have accepted the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

I accept the Landlord's testimony that the Tenant moved out of the rental unit on April 11, 2021, and that they no longer require an order of possession for this rental unit.

Additionally, I accept the undisputed testimony of the Landlord that the Tenant has not paid the outstanding rent as indicated on the Notice or paid the rent for the subsequent months of February, March, and April 2021, for this tenancy. I find that the Landlord has proven their entitlement to a monetary award in the amount of $6,300.00 for the outstanding rent.

Additionally, section 72 of the Act gives me the authority to order the repayment of a fee for an application for dispute resolution. As the Landlord has been successful in their application, I find that the Landlord is entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

I grant the Landlord a monetary order in the amount of $6,400.00, consisting of $6,300.00 in unpaid rent, and $100.00 for the recovery of the filing fee.

Conclusion

I grant the Landlord a Monetary Order in the amount of $6,400.00. The Landlord is provided with this Order in the above terms, and the Tenant must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the Tenant fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
